

RAIL STRIKERS BACK AT WORK

GIRL DID NOT THINK HOLD UP WAS ATTEMPTED

Miss Roma Humphrey On Stand in Shooting Inquest Tells Story NOT FRIGHTENED Reiterates She Did Not Tell Sheriff That Hold-up Men Were On Pike

Officials Thursday were marking time in the investigation of the tragic shooting of four boys, one fatally, by a sheriff's posse September 5.

The authorities were waiting until four o'clock Thursday afternoon to tie up the ends of the last threads of the inquest story, after which an immediate verdict by Dr. R. L. Haines, county coroner has been pronounced.

The delay until four o'clock Thursday afternoon was occasioned by the necessary absence of Con Mattern Dayton attorney who represents the parents of the boys involved, and who wanted to be present when Sheriff J. L. Funderburgh, Deputy Sheriff Joe Day and William J. Burns, volunteer deputy, are called on the stand.

Acting on the advice of their counsel, Attorneys Harry D. Smith and F. L. Johnson, these officers will probably not testify, but they will be required to take the stand first and then refuse to testify, is such is their plan.

"At no time in making the report to the colored policeman or to the sheriff did we say there was a hold-up or that we thought we were going to be held up."

So says pretty Miss Roma Humphrey, who lives five and one-half miles from Wilmington, at Hawes Chapel, and who with Harold Moore, of Camden, reported the incident of a tire along the Wilmington pike on the night of September 5, which later led to the shooting by a sheriff's posse of four boys, one fatally.

Miss Humphrey was on the stand at the inquest being conducted by Coroner R. L. Haines Wednesday afternoon. She was questioned by Coroner Haines, Prosecutor and Attorney Kenneth Williamson, counsel for Con Mattern, Dayton, and in each case stuck to her story that neither she nor Moore were frightened by the incident, and merely reported it as a warning.

The testimony of Miss Humphrey, taken the last thing before recess Wednesday afternoon, was the most important testimony taken during the day. Moore, who was with Miss Humphrey, is ill at his home in Camden, and can not be brought here to testify.

MRS. HARDING NOW ON ROAD TO HEALTH

Washington, Sept. 14.—It will be weeks if not months before Mrs. Warren G. Harding completely recovers from the disease that carried her nearly to death's door, her physicians said today in reporting a continuation of steady improvement in her condition. So marked is the improvement in her condition that the physicians today discontinued the issuance of the regular twice a day bulletins, but in so doing they said this action could not be interpreted as meaning all danger had passed. From now on it will be a slow, tedious fight to complete recovery.

In all events, the physicians said, it would be weeks or months before Mrs. Harding is able to resume her position of social activity. So far as at present contemplated, Mrs. Harding will make her tedious recovery in the White House. Plans for going away for a "long rest" were considered and abandoned because of her condition.

COMMISSION IS ATTACKED BY FORD

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 14.—Henry Ford has issued a formal statement attacking the Interstate Commerce Commission for its failure to see that coal was delivered to the public. He did not refer to the threatened closing of his plants, set for next Saturday. The statement follows in part: "The present so-called coal crisis shows up the I. C. C. If this commission was ever useful it has now outlived its usefulness like the gold standard and Wall street. In its control of empty coal cars, the I. C. C. is playing right into the hands of the profiteers under the guise of regulations for the public good. The same interests who own the public utilities, railroads and mines are using the commission as part of their scheme to fleece the public."

HOUSE ADOPTS THE CONFERENCE REPORT ON SOLDIER BONUS

Washington, D. C. Sept. 14.—With out a record vote the house this afternoon adopted the conference report on the soldiers' bonus bill sending the measure to the senate.

This action was taken according to the schedule arranged earlier in the week. Administration leaders planned to complete a conference report on the bonus by Thursday when it would be laid before the house. The bonus followed the tariff into the senate. Its enactment this week is problematical but indications are it will go to the White House for presidential action early next week.

CONSPIRACY IS TO BE CHARGED AGAINST ROADS

Defense to Introduce Charge at Hearing on Injunction.

Chicago, Sept. 14.—A charge of criminal conspiracy upon the part of the railroads to break and destroy the federated shopcrafts unions will be the defense in the hearing now proceeding before Federal Judge James H. Wisconsen, to make permanent the drastic injunction secured by the government against the rail strikers.

This became known today as the hearing continued to drag its way to a conclusion.

STRIKE SETTLEMENT IS GIVEN WELCOME

Cincinnati, Sept. 14.—Railroad officials and strikers alike in this city welcomed news that the shopmen's strike had come to an end at last.

There was some doubt in the minds of the interested parties as to the scope of the settlement reached in Chicago and its effect here but it was generally agreed today that it would affect all railroads with headquarters here and that the thousand men would return to work as soon as the agreements were completed and put into effect.

Some of the railroad heads said that there would not be employment for all of the men who had gone on strike but others declared that there would be plenty for both the emergency and striking shop employees to do for some time because of the deteriorated condition of the rolling stock resulting from the walkout on July 1. Union men and employers alike predicted that within a week the return of the men to work would be visible in improved train service.

A special meeting of striking shopmen is called for Thursday night in order to give instructions to the men as to their future course of action.

ASK COURT TO HEAR APPEAL ON BEER

Columbus, Sept. 14.—It appears practically certain today that the U. S. supreme court will be asked to hear an appeal in connection with the efforts of supporters of a proposed amendment to the state constitution providing for the manufacture and sale of 2.75 per cent beer and light wines to compel Secretary of State Smith to place the proposal on the November ballot.

Counsel for the drys are opposing the proposal and attorneys for the light wine-beer supporters alike, have indicated their intention of appealing from the state supreme court's decree in the case which is not expected to be announced for at least a week.

WALKER COMES BACK IN GEORGIA POLITICS

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 14.—Revenge his defeat of two years ago Clifford M. Walker swept the state in his race for the Democratic nomination for governor in yesterday's primary, defeating Governor Thomas W. Hardwick, seeking renomination, by one of the largest majorities ever rolled up according to practically complete returns from all over Georgia this morning.

With only five counties missing, returns tabulated show that Walker carried every congressional district in the state, rolling up a plurality that will give him 294 unit votes from 114 counties while Hardwick's column shows only 41 counties with 106 unit votes to his credit. Walker's nomination is equivalent to election in November.

"TIGER EYES" FIGHT KU KLUX KLAN

Tiger's Eyes Society. A new secret society, known as the "Invisible Jungle, Knights of the Tiger's Eye," is said to be gaining large numbers of recruits. Officials are here pictured swearing in new members. Its purpose is said to be to fight the Knights of Ku Klux Klan.

Era of National Prosperity Heralded By Settlement Of Railroad Strike

Unprecedented Volume of Business, Ahead of Roads, Inspires Cabinet Officers to Predict Good Times—Strike End Parallels That of Coal Walk-out—See General Peace

Washington, Sept. 14.—Partial settlement of the strike of four hundred thousand railroad shopmen, effected by more than half a hundred roads at Chicago, is merely a prelude to the establishment of a general peace in the railroad industry, it was said today by influential government officials who have had a hand in shaping developments at Chicago.

From now on, it was predicted, there will be a steady increase in the number of roads signing up with the unions on the basis of the peace agreement, worked out in Chicago.

The paralyzing rail strike, it was pointed out, is being settled in the manner that the five-months' coal strike was brought to a conclusion, in Cleveland—a separate peace set up between the unions and a small percentage of the employers at first, and this followed by a slow and steady increase in the number of employers signing up.

It took approximately three weeks from the date of signing the Cleveland and coal agreement to establish a general peace in the bituminous industry. It probably will take twice as long to bring a majority of the railroads, into line with the Chicago agreement because there are more complications, but the conviction generally prevailed in Washington that by October 1 there will be what amounts to general peace.

There probably will be a few "die hards" among the railroad executives who will not come under the shelter of the Chicago peace plan, but their numbers, according to government officials, are negligible, as compared with the industry as a whole. These executives are the heads of roads, like the Pennsylvania, which has never been strongly unionized, and which was able to render fairly efficient service during the ten weeks' strike.

The separate peace plan, which first proved so efficacious in settling the five-months' coal strike, has numerous advantages for both sides according to officials. It proves to the rank and file of the strikers and to the public that the labor leaders are earnestly striving for peace, and it affords both sides a graceful exit from an untenable position.

Peace will be slow and gradual, and accompanied by the blare of publicity trumpets that would have heralded a quick and complete capitulation by either side with obvious embarrassments.

Comparatively few of the roads have made sufficient increases in their shop forces during the ten weeks' strike to warrant their staying out of the Chicago agreement, according to reliable sources here. Virtually none of the roads has been able to render 100 per cent service or fully keep up repairs, and ultimately, if for no other reason than business competition, they will be forced into line, it is expected by government officials.

The beginning of peace on the railroads after ten weeks' slow strangulation of general industry finds the roads facing an unprecedented transportation task in the face of approaching winter.

Coal production is now on again in full swing, with the country's bins nearly empty and cold weather only a matter of weeks away. Millions of tons of coal will have to be moved in the next few months if industries are to be fed this winter and houses heated.

In addition to the tremendous coal carrying business ahead of the roads there also is the great national movement of this season's bumper crops to the seaboard and to the mills. The crop movement is just now getting under way.

Commodities of all kinds are stacked up along the railroads of the country, in terminals and warehouses, awaiting shipment that has been denied for the last eight weeks on account of the priorities established by the emergency order of the I. C. C.

It is this unprecedented volume of business ahead of the railroads that inspired cabinet officers to predict today a welcome era of prosperity ahead for the country. The railroads, being a key to the economic well being of the country will be first to benefit and this will gradually extend upward through industry generally. When railroad business is good all business is good and similarly when railroad business is depressed all business feels the effect.

Shell Shock To Be Defense of Veteran Held for Crime

Major Herbert Bryson, Rainbow Division, Will Go on Trial for Murder of Woman With Whom He Lived In Mountains.

Huntingdon, Pa., Sept. 14.—When Major Herbert Bryson, Rainbow Division veteran, goes on trial here next Monday on a charge of first degree murder, the novel defense of shell shock will be set up by his counsel, it is indicated.

Behind the formal charge of murder, lodged against him is an unusual combination of clandestine love and tragedy. On his return from war his nerves were shattered and he was supposed to be in the country recuperating. Reassuring but infrequent letters are said to have been sent to his family that he was on the road to health.

But hidden away in the mountains 20 miles from the nearest railroad station was a little cottage in which Bryson and Helen Irene Haines, formerly of Washington, D. C., lived unmolested, unknown and unobserved. They were supposed to be man and wife and the few scattering neighbors in that isolated region asked no curious questions. They took the couple at face value. For a year or so this ideal life went on.

Something which has not yet been revealed apparently came into this mountain abode to disturb the simple life of Bryson and the Haines woman. On the evening of April 8 last Bryson telephoned to Myron McClain, a neighbor, declaring his wife had shot herself. McClain, an undertaker, rushed the woman to a Huntingdon hospital in a hearse. Bryson rode behind the woman. At the hospital he told attendants his wife had shot herself.

Shortly afterward, as the woman lay dying, she sent for the district attorney and in the presence of witnesses told how she and Bryson had quarrelled how he had pursued her to the second floor of their home, how he had broken down the door of the room in which she had taken refuge, and then had fired point blank at her. She died a few hours after making her auto-mortem statement.

The next day Bruce Haines, of Washington, revealed to the authorities that the "Mrs. Bryson" was his wife and that she had met Bryson while working in a government bureau and had deserted him for the war veteran.

A coroner's jury rendered a verdict that Mrs. Haines death was due to a bullet fired by Major Bryson.

GIRL MOTHER SAYS PREACHER FATHER CAUSED CONDITION

Rev. L. W. Irwin, Pastor at Amelia, Ohio, Under Arrest on Charge

Sidney, O., Sept. 14.—Preliminary hearing in the case of Rev. S. W. Irwin pastor of a Methodist Episcopal Church at Amelia, Clermont County, charged with being the father of the baby son of his step-daughter, Elizabeth Ladd, aged 11, was put over until tomorrow when called in mayor's court today.

Irwin, who was transferred to Amelia from a country charge in Allen County by the conference which concluded its sessions at Dayton early last week, beyond continuing to assert his innocence, refused to talk. He was brought here at an early hour this morning, having been arrested at his home late yesterday by Deputy Sheriff Wooley. Chief of Police O'Leary claimed to recognize the prisoner as being the same man who had been arrested here a few years ago on a minor charge. Feeling is running high against the prisoner and extra precautions are being taken by the sheriff.

Irwin, arrested at his home in the little village where he presided over the spiritual destinies of one half the inhabitants late yesterday, after the child-mother had charged him with being the father of her baby, strongly protested his innocence. He was brought here and placed in jail.

The girl, who until yesterday had declared she did not know who could have been the father of the baby boy, broke down yesterday under repeated grilling, and said she had been intimate with her step-father for more than a year.

"I didn't know it was wrong," she sobbed. "I didn't tell mother because I thought, my step-father was too good to do anything that wasn't right."

Irwin had been married to Mrs. Ladd for about five years. Prior to coming here a few months ago he was pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church at Hardin, Shelby County.

FOURTEEN INJURED AS BOMB EXPLODES

Pittsburgh, Pa., Sept. 14.—Fourteen Negro and Italian men and women were injured early today when a powerful bomb exploded under the Veranda of a double house in Braddock, a suburb. The force of the explosion caused in the side of the building and blew bits of plaster into the sleepers' rooms.

Some dropped down on the heads of other occupants. Between the noise of the explosion and the subsequent crashes of falling debris the Negroes were greatly alarmed.

Nobody was fatally hurt.

SAYS 'NEWBERRYISM' STANDS REPUDIATED

Cleveland, Sept. 14.—"The Republican voters of Michigan have clearly repudiated 'Newberryism' by a vote of about two to one," said Benjamin C. Marsh managing director of the Farmers' National Council to International News Service of Washington D. C. here today on his way back to the capital after campaigning for three months in the west and north-west. State Senator Baker, entering the primary race at the eleventh hour at the request of the farmer and labor forces of the state, and with less than a nicker of campaign funds to Townsend's dollar, has come within an ace of defeating him and secured nearly a third of the vote in a four cornered fight.

"Farmer Baker has scored a marvelous victory which will make him United States senator in 1924. The honest folks of Michigan will elect former Governor Ferris, Senator in November.

"Senator Poindexter in Washington shows the same repudiation of Newberryism and almost as certainly presages the election of a Democratic senator from that state. The American people are sound to the core."

SEPARATE AGREEMENTS SIGNED; UNIONS TAKE PAY CUTS, PEACE SURE

Plans Secretly Negotiated By Jewell Accepted By 62 Railroads—Other Lines to Follow Suit—Both Sides Claim Victory.

Washington, Sept. 14.—Sixty-two per cent of the railroad mileage of the country is covered by the "Willard agreement," negotiated at Chicago of is ready to sign, according to official advices reaching Secretary of Labor Davis today.

Interpreting the developments at Chicago, Oscar F. Nelson, conciliator of the department of labor, telegraphed Secretary Davis as follows: "Latest information is that 35 per cent of the railroad mileage of the country is covered by the Willard agreement and thirty per cent more is ready to sign.

"The commission provided for by the agreement is composed of six shopcraft representatives, and not brotherhood official as originally provided for.

"Section four of the agreement is interpreted by the workers to mean that the railroads signatory to the agreement will meet union representatives on the wage question and all other matters growing out of the strike, and upon failure to agree the matter will be referred to the commission provided for in section five of the agreement.

Nelson also commented in his telegram on the "beat" scored by International News Service in announcing the agreements to end the strike stating that the news from Washington reached Chicago "before local papers had information on the settlement."

Chicago, Sept. 14.—Before today's signing of the first of the striking rail workers on roads which are included in the new rail peace agreement will be back to work.

A number of roads were to sign the agreement today. The first to sign, it was expected would be the Chicago and Northwestern railroad.

"It is out a mere formality," said W. M. Jewell, president of the road, "I will sign immediately and some of our men will be back at work in a few hours after the signatures are placed on the dotted line."

Similar meetings were to be held in the offices of other roads affected. Within a day or two the shops of the roads will be running full blast.

The settlement, which came yesterday when the shopcrafts policy committee formally accepted the peace plans secretly negotiated in the east by B. M. Jewell, president of the railway department of the American Federation of Labor and rail executives, was followed by great activity at the shopcrafts headquarters today.

Orders were being prepared and the decks cleared for action to get the shopmen of the 62 railroads who are already parties to the settlement, back to work as quickly as possible.

While the settlement includes only 30 per cent of the roads of the country it was believed that every one of the 400,000 men who have been on strike for the last ten weeks would be back at work shortly.

This will be possible through day and night shifts on the peace making roads, where equipment is in bad shape and through the possibility of peace on other roads.

The formal announcement of the settlement revealed for the first time that the vast New York Central lines including all subsidiaries, were among the sponsors of the peace plan.

The men will return to work at the present rates of pay as quickly as the agreements are signed. Each will be the same agreement.

Under the terms of the agreement all of the men will be back at work within 30 days, or will be given full pay, even if not working.

They will receive all of the pension and working privileges they held when they quit work. This in effect, restores seniority rights, although the word seniority is not mentioned in the agreement. All men now at work will be retained if they are competent, and there will be no discrimination against them.

All other matters will be settled by a committee of 12, six from each side, until May 1, 1923.

The shopcraft leaders claimed a victory today in the settlement through breaking the hitherto solid front of the railroads and in obtaining restoration of seniority for the men going back to work.

The railroads concerned claimed victory because the increase in wages for which the men went on strike is not specifically granted. Some roads are expected to give wage increases although not compelled to.

The shopcrafts, through settling with the roads now in the agreement will be able to wage a vigorous campaign on those who hold out. Union heads stated. Each man returning to work will donate two days' pay a month to aid the men who are not taken back.

A few roads, such as the Pennsylvania, the Burlington and the Union Pacific are expected to fight to the end, however.

Settlements on these roads may never be effected. They claim to be making satisfactory progress with their new unions and to be steadily recruiting a new class of competent employees.

The general effect of the settlement in the opinion of those in close touch with the situation will be:

1. To re-open to full capacity transcontinental shipping lines, especially those connecting large producing and consuming centers.
2. To give the shopcrafts union funds through the return to work of 150,000 men, to fight the roads not settling.
3. To create a split in the hitherto all powerful association of railway executives.
4. To help in general business boom through the re-opening of shipping facilities.

Among the railroads which are said to be parties to the peace agreement are the New York Central; Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis; Cincinnati Northern; Dayton, Union; Baltimore and Ohio.

They will receive all of the pension and working privileges they held when they quit work. This in effect, restores seniority rights, although the word seniority is not mentioned in the agreement. All men now at work will be retained if they are competent, and there will be no discrimination against them.

All other matters will be settled by a committee of 12, six from each side, until May 1, 1923.

The shopcraft leaders claimed a victory today in the settlement through breaking the hitherto solid front of the railroads and in obtaining restoration of seniority for the men going back to work.

The railroads concerned claimed victory because the increase in wages for which the men went on strike is not specifically granted. Some roads are expected to give wage increases although not compelled to.

The shopcrafts, through settling with the roads now in the agreement will be able to wage a vigorous campaign on those who hold out. Union heads stated. Each man returning to work will donate two days' pay a month to aid the men who are not taken back.

A few roads, such as the Pennsylvania, the Burlington and the Union Pacific are expected to fight to the end, however.

Settlements on these roads may never be effected. They claim to be making satisfactory progress with their new unions and to be steadily recruiting a new class of competent employees.

The general effect of the settlement in the opinion of those in close touch with the situation will be:

1. To re-open to full capacity transcontinental shipping lines, especially those connecting large producing and consuming centers.
2. To give the shopcrafts union funds through the return to work of 150,000 men, to fight the roads not settling.
3. To create a split in the hitherto all powerful association of railway executives.
4. To help in general business boom through the re-opening of shipping facilities.

Among the railroads which are said to be parties to the peace agreement are the New York Central; Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis; Cincinnati Northern; Dayton, Union; Baltimore and Ohio.

NARROWLY AVERT RIOT IN KENTUCKY TOWN IS REPORT

Cincinnati, Sept. 14.—According to long distance telephone messages received here from Roy B. Williams, U. S. marshal on duty at Corbin, Ky., a riot was narrowly averted there on Tuesday night and Wednesday morning after the L. and N. shops had been bombarded with rocks and guards had fired a number of shots into an adjacence corn field from which the missiles came. Some of the bullets struck homes in the town, the marshal said, and the citizens armed themselves and threatened to storm the shops. Trouble was averted by the marshal and twelve deputies taking charge of the situation and dispersing both the mob and the guards.

EUROPEAN SITUATION AS SERIOUS AS IN 1914 SAYS BRITISH OFFICIAL; FEAR WAR

Greece Sends Army Corps Into Thrace to Defend Territory—Greeks Massacre Turks and Fire City

Smyrna, Sept. 14.—The Turkish commander today proclaimed martial law here for preservation of order.

Athens, Sept. 14.—Military messengers were underway by Greece today for the protection of Thrace from Turkish invasion. Greece has a big army in Thrace, lying north of Constantinople and has heavy artillery transports from landing. Thrace was awarded to Greece in the treaty of Sevres.

Paris, Sept. 14.—Greek soldiers in their retreat along the northern end of the Turkish battle front set fire to the city of Broussa and "massacred" Turks and Bulgarians," according to charges made today by the Turkish delegation in Paris.

Geneva, Sept. 14.—The Greek army in the northwestern corner of Asia Minor has surrendered to the Turkish nationalists, having no transport in which to escape, it was reported from Constantinople today. Order has been restored at Smyrna.

London, Sept. 14.—"The European situation is as fully serious as it was in 1914," declared Lieut. Commander J. M. Kenworthy, a member of parliament today. "It is a mistake in British policy another world war might easily start. There must be caution."

An army corps—the third—has been ordered into Thrace by Greece to defend that territory against Turkish invasion, according to information from Athens today. The French hold the key to the near east situation. British officials are fearful that another Balkan war, involving Greece, Turkey, Bulgaria, Jugo Slavia, Roumania and possibly Hungary and Russia will break out if the French support the Turkish claims.

RAIL STRIKERS BACK AT WORK

GIRL DID NOT THINK HOLD UP WAS ATTEMPTED

Miss Roma Humphrey On Stand in Shooting Inquest Tells Story

NOT FRIGHTENED

Reiterates She Did Not Tell Sheriff That Hold-up Men Were On Pike

Officials Thursday were marking time in the investigation of the tragic shooting of four boys, one fatally, by a sheriff's posse September 5.

The authorities were waiting until four o'clock Thursday afternoon to tie up the ends of the last threads of the inquest story, after which an immediate verdict by Dr. R. L. Haines, county coroner has been promised.

The delay until four o'clock Thursday afternoon was occasioned by the necessary absence of Con Mattern Dayton attorney who represents the parents of the boys involved, and who wanted to be present when Sheriff L. Funderburgh, Deputy Sheriff Joe Day and William J. Burns, volunteer deputy, are called on the stand.

Acting on the advice of their counsel, Attorneys Harry D. Smith and F. L. Johnson, these officers will probably not testify, but they will be required to take the stand first and then refuse to testify, as is their plan.

"At no time in making the report to the colored policeman or to the sheriff did we say there was a hold-up or that we thought we were going to be held up."

So says pretty Miss Roma Humphrey, who lives five and one-half miles from Wilmington, at Hawes Chapel, and who with Harold Moore, of Camden, reported the incident of a fire along the Wilmington pike on the night of September 5, which later led to the shooting by a sheriff's posse of four boys, one fatally.

Miss Humphrey was on the stand at the inquest being conducted by Coroner R. L. Haines into the death of Volney Nichols, late Wednesday afternoon. She was questioned by Coroner Haines, Prosecuting Attorney J. Kenneth Williamson and Attorney Con Mattern, Dayton, counsel for the families of the boys, and in each case stuck to her story that neither she nor Moore were frightened by the incident, and merely reported it as a warning.

The testimony of Miss Humphrey, taken the last thing before recess Wednesday afternoon, was the most important testimony taken during the day. Moore, who was with Miss Humphrey, is ill at his home in Camden, and can not be brought here to testify.

MRS. HARDING NOW ON ROAD TO HEALTH

Washington, Sept. 14.—It will be weeks if not months before Mrs. Warren G. Harding completely recovers from the disease that carried her nearly to death's door, her physicians said today in reporting a continuation of steady improvement in her condition. So marked is the improvement in her condition that the physicians today discontinued the issuance of the regular twice a day bulletins, but in so doing they said this action could not be interpreted as meaning all danger had passed. From now on it will be a slow, tedious fight to complete recovery.

In all events, the physicians said, it would be weeks or months before Mrs. Harding is able to resume her position of social activity. So far as at present contemplated, Mrs. Harding will make her tedious recovery in the White House. Plans for going away for a "long rest" were considered and abandoned because of her condition.

COMMISSION IS ATTACKED BY FORD

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 14.—Henry Ford has issued a formal statement attacking the Interstate Commerce Commission for its failure to see that coal was delivered to the public. He did not refer to the threatened closing of his plants, set for next Saturday. The statement follows in part: "The present so-called coal crisis show, up the I. C. C. If this commission was ever useful it has now outlived its usefulness like the gold standard and Wall street. In its control of empty coal cars, the I. C. C. is playing right into the hands of the profiteers under the guise of regulations for the public good. The same interests who own the public utilities, railroads, and mines are using the commission as part of their scheme to fleece the public."

HOUSE ADOPTS THE CONFERENCE REPORT ON SOLDIER BONUS

Washington, D. C. Sept. 14.—With out a record vote the house this afternoon adopted the conference report on the soldiers' bonus bill sending the measures to the senate.

This action was taken according to the schedule arranged earlier in the week. Administration leaders planned to complete a conference report on the bonus by Thursday when it would be laid before the house. The bonus followed the tariff into the senate. Its enactment this week is problematical but indications are it will go to the White House for presidential action early next week.

CONSPIRACY IS TO BE CHARGED AGAINST ROADS

Defense to Introduce Charge at Hearing on Injunction.

Chicago, Sept. 14.—A charge of criminal conspiracy upon the part of the railroads to break and destroy the federated shopcrafts unions will be the defense in the hearing now proceeding before Federal Judge James H. Winkerson, to make permanent the drastic injunction secured by the government against the rail strikers.

This became known today as the hearing continued to drag its way to a conclusion.

STRIKE SETTLEMENT IS GIVEN WELCOME

Cincinnati, Sept. 14.—Railroad officials and strikers alike in this city welcomed news that the shopmen's strike had come to an end at last.

There was some doubt in the minds of the interested parties as to the scope of the settlement reached in Chicago and its effect here but it was generally agreed today that it would affect all railroads with headquarters here and that the thousands men would return to work as soon as the agreements were completed and put into effect.

Some of the railroad heads said that there would not be employment for all of the men who had gone on strike but others declared that there would be plenty for both the emergency and striking shop employees to do for some time because of the deteriorated condition of the rolling stock resulting from the walkout on July 1. Union men and employers alike predicted that within a week the return of the men to work would be visible in improved train service. A special meeting of striking shopmen is called for Thursday night in order to give instructions to the men as to their future course of action.

ASK COURT TO HEAR APPEAL ON BEER

Columbus, Sept. 14.—It appears practically certain today that the U. S. supreme court will be asked to hear an appeal in connection with the efforts of supporters of a proposed amendment to the state constitution providing for the manufacture and sale of 2.75 per cent beer and light wines to compel Secretary of State Smith to place the proposal on the November ballot.

Counsel for the drys are opposing the proposal and attorneys for the light wine-beer supporters alike, have indicated their intention of appealing from the state supreme court's decree in the case which is not expected to be announced for at least a week.

WALKER COMES BACK IN GEORGIA POLITICS

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 14.—Revenge his defeat of two years ago Clifford M. Walker swept the state in his race for the Democratic nomination for governor in yesterday's primary, defeating Governor Thomas W. Hardwick, seeking renomination, by one of the largest majorities ever rolled up according to practically complete returns from all over Georgia this morning.

With only five counties missing, returns tabulated show that Walker carried every congressional district in the state, rolling up a plurality that will give him 294 unit votes from 114 counties while Hardwick's column shows only 41 counties with 106 unit votes to his credit. Walker's nomination is equivalent to election in November.

Era of National Prosperity Heralded By Settlement Of Railroad Strike

Unprecedented Volume of Business, Ahead of Roads, Inspires Cabinet Officers to Predict Good Times—Strike End Parallels That of Coal Walk-out—See General Peace

Washington, Sept. 14.—Partial settlement of the strike of four hundred thousand railroad shopmen, effected by more than half a hundred roads at Chicago, is merely a prelude to the establishment of a general peace in the railroad industry, it was said today by influential government officials who have had a hand in shaping developments at Chicago.

From now on it was predicted, there will be a steady increase in the number of roads signing up with the unions on the basis of the peace agreement, worked out in Chicago.

The paralyzing rail strike, it was pointed out, is being settled exactly in the manner that the five-months' coal strike was brought to a conclusion, in Cleveland—a separate peace set up between the unions and a small percentage of the employers at first, and this followed by a slow and steady increase in the number of employers signing up.

It took approximately three weeks from the date of signing the Cleveland coal agreement to establish a general peace in the bituminous industry. It probably will take twice that long to bring a majority of the railroads into line with the Chicago agreement because there are more complications, but the conviction generally prevailed in Washington that by October 1 there will be what amounts to general peace.

There probably will be a few "die hards" among the railroad executives who will not come under the shelter of the Chicago peace plan, but their numbers, according to government officials, are negligible, as compared with the industry as a whole. These executives are the heads of road, like the Pennsylvania, which has never been strongly unionized, and which was able to render fairly efficient service during the ten weeks' strike.

The separate peace plan, which first proved so efficacious in settling the five-months' coal strike, has numerous advantages for both sides according to officials. It proves to the rank and file of the strikers and to the public that the labor leaders are earnestly striving for peace, and it affords both sides a graceful exit from an untenable position.

Peace will be slow and gradual, and unaccompanied by the blare of publicity trumpets that would have heralded a quick and complete capitulation by either side with obvious embarrassments.

Comparatively few of the roads have made sufficient increases in their shop forces during the ten weeks' strike to warrant their staying out of the Chicago agreement, according to reliable sources here. Virtually none of the roads has been able to render 100 per cent service or fully keep up repairs, and ultimately, if for no other reason than business competition, they will be forced into line. It is expected by government officials.

The beginning of peace on the railroads after ten weeks' slow strangulation of general industry finds the roads facing an unprecedented transportation task in the face of approaching winter.

Coal production is now on again in full swing, with the country's bins nearly empty and cold weather only a matter of weeks away. Millions of tons of coal will have to be moved in the next few months if industries are to be fed this winter and houses heated.

In addition to the tremendous coal carrying business ahead of the roads there also is the great national movement of this season's bumper crops to the seaboard and to the mills. The crop movement is just now getting under way.

Commodities of all kinds are stacked up along the railroads of the country, in terminals and warehouses, awaiting shipment, that has been denied for the last eight weeks on account of the priorities established by the emergency order of the I. C. C. It is this unprecedented volume of business ahead of the railroads that inspired cabinet officers to predict today a welcome era of prosperity ahead for the country. The railroads, being a key to the economic well being of the country will be first to benefit and this will gradually extend upward through industry generally. When railroad business is good all business is good and similarly when railroad business is depressed all business feels the effect.

SAYS 'NEWBERRYISM' STANDS REPUDIATED

Cleveland, Sept. 14.—"The Republican voters of Michigan have clearly repudiated 'Newberryism' by a vote of about two to one," said Benjamin C. Marsh managing director of the Farmers' National Council to International News Service of Washington D. C. here today on his way back to the capital after campaigning for three months in the west and north-west. State Senator Baker, entering the primary race at the eleventh hour at the request of the farmer and labor forces of the state, and with less than a nickel of campaign funds to Townsend's dollar, has come within an ace of defeating him and secured nearly a third of the vote in a four cornered fight.

"Farmer Baker has scored a marvelous victory which will make him United States senator in 1924. The honest folks of Michigan will elect former Governor Ferris, Senator in November."

"Senator Poindexter in Washington shows the same repudiation of Newberryism and almost as certainly presages the election of a Democratic senator from that state. The American people are sound to the core."

SEPARATE AGREEMENTS SIGNED; UNIONS TAKE PAY CUTS, PEACE SURE

Plans Secretly Negotiated By Jewell Accepted By 62 Railroads—Other Lines to Follow Suit—Both Sides Claim Victory.

Washington, Sept. 14.—Sixty-two per cent of the railroad mileage of the country is covered by the "Willard agreement," negotiated at Chicago or is ready to sign, according to official advices reaching Secretary of Labor Davis today.

Interpreting the developments at Chicago, Oscar F. Nelson, conciliator of the department of labor, telegraphed Secretary Davis as follows: "Latest information is that 35 per cent of the railroad mileage of the country is covered by the Willard agreement and thirty per cent more is ready to sign."

"The commission provided for by the agreement is composed of its shopcraft representatives, and not brotherhood officials as originally provided for."

"Section four of the agreement is interpreted by the workers to mean that the railroads signatory to the agreement will meet union representatives on the wage question and all other matters growing out of the strike, and upon failure to agree the matter will be referred to the commission provided for in section five of the agreement."

Nelson also commented in his telegram on the "beat" scored by International News Service in announcing the agreements to end the strike stating that the news from Washington reached Chicago "before local papers had information on the settlement."

Chicago, Sept. 14.—Before today's men going back to work. The railroads concerned claimed victory because the increase in wages for which the men went on strike is not specifically ganted. Some roads are expected to give wage increases although not compelled to. The shopcrafts, through settling with the roads now in the agreement will be able to wage a vigorous campaign on those who hold out, union heads stated. LOCAL RAIL SHOPS NOW AFFECTED BY STRIKE SETTLEMENT

Lines of the Pennsylvania System, the only railroad passing through Xenia that maintains shops here, is no longer affected by the partial strike settlement, which will probably result in an end of the strike on from 30 to 62 class one roads.

Officials of the Pennsylvania Company here up to Thursday afternoon, had not been advised of any change in the local strike situation. Twenty-eight men employed in the local shops who walked out when the strike started are still out, although their places have been filled as they are needed.

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, one branch of which passes through Xenia, was affected by the settlement, which will mean the end of difficulties on that road. The road does not maintain shops here and has no men on strike in this city. The Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis, which passes through the northern part of Greene County at Osborn, is included among the roads which have reached an agreement with the strikers.

Marvelous is the only word to describe Chase's work. Although Miss Campbell must return for another sitting already the likeness might be called perfect. The return visit today insured perfection of color and detail.

Before Miss Campbell had left the artist's studio a car from the Universal Film Co. called to whisk her away to the Fort Lee studios.

DOODS ADDITION LOT OWNERS TO MEET COMMISSION

Final decision on the question of putting in sewer and water connections in the first track of the Doods Addition, is expected when the City Commission meets Thursday evening. Lot owners, who have been active in creating sentiment among the property holders in favor of the improvements will attend the meeting and are urging that all lot owners affected by the proposed improvements be present also to lend moral support to the measure.

The visiting delegation of lot owners will have spokesmen, who will present their side to the commission and ask that the petition signed by a big majority of the owners, be favorably acted upon by that body.

The petitions were talked of at the last meeting of the City Commission and at that time City Manager Hale was instructed to again to circulate the petitions in the attempt to get the signatures of all lot owners. His efforts were partly successful, although he was unable to locate part of the lot owners, who had not yet signed the petitions, and whose names are still missing from the papers.

Lot owners believe that the movement has almost unanimous sentiment back of it, and that the commission will act in favor of the improvements at the meeting Thursday night.

There are about 100 lots in the first track opened, where the planned improvements will be located, although some of the lot owners have several lots in their names.

The program was given over to the report of the president who outlined the work of the convention and the policies of the international organization for the coming year. "A square deal for the underprivileged child," he said is the working motto to be used for the year by clubs all over this country and Canada. Clubs in both nations will turn their efforts to aiding children who do have common advantages.

The convention held in Toronto, said Williamson, was heralded as a move to cement international friendship which years of peace between the two nations, has developed.

BRITAIN READY TO PROCEED TOWARD DEBT SETTLEMENT

Action of Germany Will Not Have Effect on Proposed Plan.

Washington, Sept. 14.—The British government will proceed with a settlement of the British $5,000,000,000 debt to the United States, regardless of any action taken by Germany in the reparations controversy with the allies, according to official advice to the American debt funding commission today.

At the treasury it was declared that the British mission will reach the United States late in September and that the American debt commission will be ready to receive the delegation and hasten the funding operation.

No further advice has been received from Paris regarding the date of return to this country of Jean Parmentier, French debt envoy. It was suggested however that resumption of negotiations with the French probably will not be resumed until late in October.

The Italian government aside from suggesting a willingness to send a commission to Washington has sent no further communication to this government. The American commission still awaits further official word from Italy of that government's purpose to discuss debt adjustment.

RACE WITH DEATH NEAR FINISH LINE

Jackson, Cal., Sept. 14.—Human brains was close to triumph today over obstacles and all Jackson waited tensely to learn whether the race with death to save the 47 men entrapped 4,800 feet below the surface of the earth in the Argonaut gold mine here will be successful.

Experts arriving to supervise the final work of rescue reiterated their belief the men are alive. H. M. Wolf, state superintendent of safety, in a statement today said all depended upon whether the men had been able to barricade themselves from the gases the day of the accident. Fresh men went down the shaft of the Kennedy mine from which two crews are driving for the lower depths of the Argonaut mine. Official figures set their goal at many hours away—but Jackson was prepared for news of the break through at any minute.

HUGE ARMY BLIMP LEAVES ON FLIGHT ACROSS COUNTRY

Pittsburgh, Sept. 14.—The large army dirigible C-2 which left Langley field at 12:35 o'clock this morning passed over Pittsburgh at 1:45 o'clock enroute for Akron, O., its first stop on a transcontinental trip to California.

Newport News, Va., Sept. 14.—After a delay of several weeks the huge army blimp C-2 left Langley field early this morning for its cross country path finding map making voyage.

The C-2 left her hangar and sailed away without any spectacular display rising slowly on the converging point of a score or more of search light beams. She took a due west course headed for Akron, O., where the first leg of the journey will end.

FRENCH REPLY TO CLEAR UP TROUBLE IN THE NEAR EAST

No Further Fighting is Reported From Bulgarian Frontier

London, Sept. 14.—The French reply to the British note on the near east, situation which is expected tonight, will clear up the international situation according to official opinion.

France has a treaty with Turkey and it has been claimed that France supported the Turks in their war against Greece. On the other hand, the British were understood to be sympathetic toward the Greek cause.

No further fighting was reported from the Bulgarian frontier.

The British cabinet will canvass the whole near east situation tomorrow. It is probable that it will suggest that the whole matter be laid before the league of nations at once in view of the virtual collapse of plans for the Venice peace conference.

The Greeks are reported to be prepared to meet any further hostilities on the southern frontier of Bulgaria. Turkish troops are reported to be approaching the neutral zones established by the allied military authorities along the straits.

France is said to have a plan for a near east peace conference engineered entirely by the allies. The Turks would not be called in until it was under way. It probably would be held in Paris if it is arranged at all.

STOMACH TROUBLE--NO WORK 3 YEARS

Two Bottles of Nerv. Worth Put Him Back On Job

"About three years ago I commenced to lose flesh and strength rapidly," said S. S. Alego, Washington, Pa. "I suffered dyspepsia and stomach and bowel trouble for years and tried various remedies without relief. My condition became so bad I was forced to be off duty and lost 13 pounds in two weeks time. I began to think I was done for in this world. Then I got Nerv. Worth and from the first dose I began to pick up. After taking two bottles I was up and around and soon went back to work for the first time in three years. I don't seem to get tired with a hard day's work. I eat well and sleep fine."

That's what Nerv. Worth does for hundreds who have stomach and bowel trouble. You can get it at any drug store for one dollar a bottle. It is always on sale at the Sayre and Hemphill drug store in this city and everywhere else. Nerv. Worth is a sure money back if the first bottle does not show encouraging results. It is fine for delicate women and sickly children because of its pleasant taste and mild though always effective action.

Who Is America's Sweetheart?

$100,000 Reward

WHO ARE THEY?

① DIP CY FOR MARK ⑥ OH NO LARD DOTTY
② A FAR LAND GOS KIS US ⑦ RAY BAD LICE
③ SEE ANY RAGS ⑧ WANT BURN BY RASHI
④ HIS FORD RAN OR ⑨ RUBE ILL BIKE
⑤ WALL I RED ACE ⑩ BUTTUN SEAKER

Can You Solve This Mystery?

Who is America's sweetheart? I'll give you just one guess. Why, of course—it's "Dip cy for mark,"—the first funny sentence above, only we've rearranged the letters in her name.

Her name is really Mary Pickford, the great movie star. Now that you know, you have 10 points to your credit in the Mary Pickford Mystery Puzzle. The ten funny sentences above are the names of ten movie stars with their letters rearranged.

If you can straighten them out to spell correctly the names of the movie actors, you have solved the mystery. You will get 100 points and can win the $1,000 reward.

More than likely you know the names of most of the Popular Movie Stars, but to be fair to everybody we are mentioning below the names of some of them just to refresh your memory: Mae Murray, Agnes Ayres, Theodore Roberts, Harrison Ford, Billie Burke, Lila Lee, Buster Keaton, Will Rogers, Bryant Washburn, Alice Joyce, Dorothy Dalton, Douglas Fairbanks, Wallace Reid, Mary Pickford, Thomas Meighan and Joyce Brady.

185 Points Wins $1,000

If you can correctly rearrange the ten names of the movie players I'll give you 100 points toward winning the $1,000. You will gain 60 more points by proving that you have shown a copy of The Rural Weekly to five of your friends. This will give you 160 points in all. The final 25 points will be awarded by the judges of the puzzle to the person who sends in the largest number of correct words made up from the letters in the name of the great movie star, "Mary Pickford."

Send in your names of the ten movie stars and your list of words together. Send them in NOW.

In making up your list of words from the name, "Mary Pickford," only letters that appear in her name can be used. A letter can be used in a single word only as many times as it appears in the name of the movie star. Only words found in the main body of Webster's Dictionary can be counted.

Abbreviations, proper nouns, proper adjectives, prefixes, suffixes, initials and foreign words cannot be counted. Words spelled alike, but with different definitions, can only be counted as one word. By just looking at the name "Mary Pickford" you can see such words as "far," "pick," "my," "red," etc. Number each word alphabetically on your list.

The winning answer and the one earning 185 points will receive $1,000 in cash. There are 25 prizes and in case of a tie each tying contestant will receive identical prizes.

Send No Money—You Can be a Winner

Remember, folks, you don't have to spend a penny of your own money to win, and you won't be asked to subscribe to our paper. All you need to do is introduce The Rural Weekly to five of your friends, but first send your answer to the puzzle, and if it is correct, I will give you 100 Points. Then I'll show you how easy it is to gain the other 85 points necessary to win the $1,000 prize. Write the names of the ten Movie Stars correctly on a piece of paper and send it in right away with your list of words. Contest closes for solutions, Nov. 4th.

ODDS ADDITION LOT OWNERS TO MEET COMMISSION

Final decision on the question of putting in sewer and water conduits in the first track of the Odds Addition, is expected when the City commission meets Thursday evening.

Lot owners, who have been active in creating sentiment among the property holders in favor of the improvements, will attend the meeting and are urging that all lot owners affected by the proposed improvements be present also to lend moral support to the measure.

The visiting delegation of lot owners will have spokesmen, who will present their side to the commission and ask that the petition signed by a big majority of the owners, be favorably acted upon by that body.

The petitions were talked of at the last meeting of the City Commission and at that time City Manager Hale was instructed to again to circulate the petitions in the attempt to get the signatures of all lot owners. His efforts were partly successful, although he was unable to locate part of the lot owners, who had not yet signed the petitions, and whose names are still missing from the papers.

Lot owners believe that the movement has almost unanimous sentiment back of it, and that the commission will act in favor of the improvements at the meeting Thursday night.

There are about 100 lots in the first tract opened, where the planned improvements will be located, although some of the lot owners have several lots in their names.

The program was given over to the report of the president who outlined the work of the convention and the policies of the international organization for the coming year. "A square deal for the underprivileged child," he said is the working motto to be used for the year by clubs all over this country and Canada. Clubs in both nations will turn their efforts to aiding children who do have common advantages.

The convention held in Toronto, said Williamson, was heralded as a move to cement international friendship which years of peace between the two nations, has developed.

BRITAIN READY TO PROCEED TOWARD DEBT SETTLEMENT

Action of Germany Will Not Have Effect on Proposed Plan.

Washington, Sept. 14.—The British government will proceed with a settlement of the British $5,000,000,000 debt to the United States, regardless of any action taken by Germany in the reparations controversy with the allies, according to official advices to the American debt funding commission today.

At the treasury it was declared that the British mission will reach the United States late in September, and that the American debt commission will be ready to receive the delegation and hasten the funding operation.

No further advices have been received from Paris regarding the date of return to this country of Jean Parmentier, French debt envoy. It was suggested however that resumption of negotiations with the French probably will not be resumed until late in October.

The Italian government aside from suggesting a willingness to send a commission to Washington has sent no further communication to this government. The American commission still awaits further official word from Italy of that government's purpose to discuss debt adjustment.

RACE WITH DEATH NEAR FINISH LINE

Jackson, Cal., Sept. 14.—Human brain was close to triumph today over obstacles and all Jackson waited tensely to learn whether the race with death to save the 47 men entrapped 4,800 feet below the surface of the earth in the Argonaut gold mine here will be successful.

Experts arriving to supervise the final work of rescue reiterated their belief the men are alive. H. M. Wolfelin, state superintendent of safety, in a statement today said all depended upon whether the men had been able to barricade themselves from the gases the day of the accident. Fresh men went down the shaft of the Kennedy mine from which two crews are driving for the lower depths of the Argonaut mine expectant. Official figures set their goal at many hours away—but Jackson was prepared for news of the break through at any minute.

HUGE ARMY BLIMP LEAVES ON FLIGHT ACROSS COUNTRY

Pittsburgh, Sept. 14.—The large army dirigible C-2 which left Langley field at 12:35 o'clock this morning passed over Pittsburgh at 1:45 o'clock enroute for Akron, O., its first stop on a transcontinental trip to California.

Newport News, Va., Sept. 14.—After a delay of several weeks the huge army blimp C-2 left Langley field early this morning for its cross country path finding map making voyage.

The C-2 left her hangar and sailed away without any spectacular display rising slowly on the converging point of a score or more of search light beams. She took a due west course headed for Akron, O., where the first leg of the journey will end.

FRENCH REPLY TO CLEAR UP TROUBLE IN THE NEAR EAST

No Further Fighting is Reported From Bulgarian Frontier

London, Sept. 14.—The French reply to the British note on the near east, situation which is expected tonight, will clear up the international situation, according to official opinion.

France has a treaty with Turkey and it has been claimed that France supported the Turks in their war against Greece. On the other hand, the British were understood to be sympathetic toward the Greek cause.

No further fighting was reported from the Bulgarian frontier.

The British cabinet will canvass the whole near east situation tomorrow. It is probable that it will suggest that the whole matter be laid before the league of nations at once in view of the virtual collapse of plans for the Venice peace conference.

The Greeks are reported to be prepared to meet any further hostilities on the southern frontier of Bulgaria. Turkish troops are reported to be approaching the neutral zones established by the allied military authorities along the straits.

France is said to have a plan for a near east peace conference engineered entirely by the allies. The Turks would not be called until it was under way. It probably would be held in Paris if it is arranged at all.

STOMACH TROUBLE--NO WORK 3 YEARS

Two Bottles of Nerv-Worth Put Him Back On Job

"About three years ago I commenced to lose flesh and strength rapidly," said S. S. Alege, Washington, Pa. "I suffered dyspepsia and stomach and bowel trouble for years and tried various remedies without relief. My condition became so bad I was forced to bed for duty and lost 13 pounds in two weeks time. I began to think I was done for in this world. Then I got Nerv-Worth and from the first dose I began to pick up. After taking two bottles I was up and around and soon went back to work for the first time in three years. I don't seem to get tired with a hard day's work—I eat well and sleep fine."

That's what Nerv-Worth does for hundreds who have stomach and bowel trouble. You can get it at any drug store for one dollar a bottle. It is a new way on sale at the Sayre and Hemminger's in this city and even the bill drug store is authorized to give the money back if the first bottle does not show encouraging results. It is fine for delicate women and sickly children because of its pleasant taste and mild though always effective action.

Who Is America's Sweetheart?

$1000.00 Reward

WHO ARE THEY?

①DIP CY FOR MARK ②OH NO LARD DOTTY
③A FAR LAND GOB KUSUS ④RAY BAD LICE
⑤SEE ANY RAGS ⑥WANT BURN BY RASH
⑦HIS FORD RAN OR ⑦RUBE ILL BIKE
⑧WALL I RED ACE ⑧BUTTON SEAKER

Can You Solve This Mystery?

Who is America's sweetheart? I'll give you just one guess. Why, of course—it's "Dip cy for mark,"—the first funny sentence above, only we've rearranged the letters in her name.

Her name is really Mary Pickford, the great movie star. Now that you know, you have 10 points to your credit in the Mary Pickford Mystery Puzzle. The ten funny sentences above are the names of ten movie stars with their letters rearranged.

If you can straighten them out to spell correctly the names of the movie actors, you have solved the mystery. You will get 100 points and can win the $1,000 reward.

More than likely you know the names of most of the Popular Movie Stars, but to be fair to everybody we are mentioning below the names of some of them just to refresh your memory: Mae Murray, Agnes Ayres, Theodore Roberts, Harrison Ford, Billie Burke, Lila Lee, Buster Keaton, Will Rogers, Bryant Washburn, Alice Joyce, Dorothy Dalton, Douglas Fairbanks, Wallace Reid, Mary Pickford, Thomas Meighan and Alice Brady.

185 Points Wins $1,000

If you can correctly rearrange the ten names of the movie players I'll give you 100 points toward winning the $1,000. You will gain 60 more points by proving that you have shown a copy of The Rural Weekly to five of your friends. This will give you 160 points in all. The final 25 points will be awarded by the judges of the puzzle to the person who sends in the largest number of correct words made up from the letters in the name of the great movie star, "Mary Pickford."

Send in your names of the ten movie stars and your list of words together. Send them in NOW.

In making up your list of words from the name, "Mary Pickford," only letters that appear in her name can be used. A letter can be used in a single word only as many times as it appears in the name of the movie star. Only words found in the main body of Webster's Dictionary can be counted. Words spelled alike, but with different definitions, can only be counted as one word. By just looking at the name "Mary Pickford" you can see such words as "Pier," "pick," "my," "for," etc. Number each word alphabetically on your list.

The winning answer or the one earning 185 points will receive $1,000 in cash. There are 25 prizes and in case of a tie each tying contestant will receive identical prize.

Send No Money—You Can be a Winner

Remember, folks, you don't have to spend one penny of your own money to win, and you won't be asked to subscribe to our paper. All you need to do is introduce The Rural Weekly to five of your friends, but first send your answer to the puzzle, and if it is correct, I will give you 100 Points. Then I'll show you how easy it is to gain the other 85 points necessary to win the $1,000 prize. Write the names of the ten movie stars correctly on a piece of paper and send it in right away with your list of words. Contest closes for solutions, Nov. 4th.

PHONE PIONEERS TO MEET IN OHIO; LOCAL MEN ATTEND

Veteran telephone workers and noted scientists of the telephone industry from all parts of the country will attend the ninth annual convention of the Telephone Pioneers of America to be held in Cleveland, Sept. 29 and 30, according to H. W. Cleaver, manager of the Ohio Bell Telephone Company here. This is the first time the "Pioneers" have held their convention in Ohio, and they are coming as guests of the Ohio Bell Telephone Company.

Telephone workers from Xenia, O., expect to attend are: Chas. R. Cross, of the Springfield & Xenia Telephone Company and H. W. Cleaver, Chas. A. Scroggy and H. L. Karch of the Ohio Bell Telephone Company.

Special trains from east and west will begin to arrive Thursday afternoon, Sept. 28. Hotel Cleveland will be headquarters of the visiting delegates and an informal gathering there has been planned for Thursday evening. The convention opens with regular sessions Friday morning, Sept. 29th.

"Good fellowship and social gatherings are important features of the gathering of telephone pioneers," said Mr. Cleaver, "as these trail blazers of the industry gather to talk over old times and renew yearly their friendships formed in the early and trying days of the telephone."

"To become a member of the Pioneers a man or woman must have had 21 years experience in the telephone work. There are more than 300 people in Ohio members of the state chapter which is called N. C. Kingsbury Chapter in honor of a former Ohio man, once vice president of the American Telephone & Telegraph Company. Titles and important positions mean nothing in the "Pioneer" organization and a member must have been 21 years in the telephone industry to be eligible for the organization."

CLEVELAND GETS RELIEF IN STRIKE

Cleveland, Sept. 14.—With five of the important roads serving Cleveland parties to the peace agreement reached at Chicago yesterday executives, leaders of the striking shopmen and the business public generally sighed with relief today at the assurance that peace in the tangled railroad situation was once more assured at least in part.

The only important lines serving Cleveland not parties to the peace plan are the Erie and Pennsylvania, but the former is expected to accept the terms reached within a few days. The New York Central, Big Four and Lake Erie, Nickel Plate and Baltimore and Ohio today were making plans to put their men back to work under the settlement.

DEVALERA TO PURSUE FIGHTING POLICY

London, Sept. 14.—Eamonn DeValera, will refuse to accept amnesty from the free state government and will continue his battle against the Anglo-Irish treaty and the Irish constitution, it was indicated by an interview given by the irregular chieftain in reply to general Richard Mulcahy's speech in the Dail Eireann and telegraphed here today.

"The protreaty party wants to play with the new army and win cheap military glory," declared DeValera. "I stand by every word that I spoke and every charge I made during the political campaign and the election." DeValera charged that the protreaty party "broke their pact with the Irish Republicans at the instance of premier Lloyd George and Colonial Secretary Churchill, with the result that the Republicans are unable to avert a terrible state of affairs."

Probably the greatest discovery of the age is Vitamin B, that life-giving element found only in certain foods—but abundant quantities in "ZEP"—the Toasted Breakfast Food. This discovery accounts for the fact that people who eat a lot are not necessarily strong and healthy. They don't eat the right kind of food. And the beginning of the day is the most important time for your system to assimilate real blood-and-tissue building elements.

Eat "ZEP" for breakfast and give your system the chance it deserves. "ZEP" contains the things you need to give you the energy for your daily task. Try it tomorrow, it's the best dish you ever tasted.

Ask Your Grocer for "ZEP" (formerly "ZEP") and Sanitarium Cooked Bran—the original Battle Creek Food. It is the best. Goes fine with "ZEP." Look for the yellow package with red seal. THE BATTLE CREEK FOOD COMPANY, Battle Creek, Michigan

WONDERFUL FOR SICK STOMACHS

Everyone who tries it willingly acknowledges that it does cure indigestion, and certainly banishes dyspepsia and other stomach distress almost instantly.

Read this letter from Wm. Starkey, Rock Creek, Ohio.

I was sick for several years, went to hospital after getting no relief from doctors and many remedies that I tried. Unable to work, and confined to the house, I was advised to try Doctor Orth's Stomach Remedy. I had no faith in anything any more, but I tried it and to my happy surprise it did me good. I am now perfectly well and for six months have been working every day in the blacksmith shop, eating everything I want and in perfect health.

It is with pleasure that I recommend Dr. Orth's Stomach Remedy. Money back if Dr. Orth's Stomach Remedy does not do what we say it will, and remember that this remarkable remedy is the prescription of a practicing physician who used it with great success in exactly such cases as yours during a period of 60 years. Sayre and Hemphill and all good druggists can supply you.

CRAMPS, PAINS AND BACKACHE

St. Louis Woman Relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

St. Louis, Mo.—"I was bothered with cramps and pains every month and had to go to bed as I could not work. My mother and my whole family always took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for such troubles and they induced me to try it and it has helped me very much. I don't have cramps any more, and I can do my housework all through the month. I recommend your Vegetable Compound to my friends for female troubles."—Mrs. DELLA SCHOLZ, 1412 Salisbury Street, St. Louis, Mo.

Just think for a moment. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been in use for nearly fifty years. It is prepared from medicinal plants, by the utmost pharmaceutical skill, and superior methods. The ingredients thus combined in the Compound correct the conditions which cause such annoying symptoms as had been troubling Mrs. Scholz. The Vegetable Compound exercises a restorative influence of the most desirable character, correcting the trouble in a gentle but efficient manner. This is noted by the disappearance, one after another, of the disagreeable symptoms.

PHONE PIONEERS TO MEET IN OHIO; LOCAL MEN ATTEND

Veteran telephone workers and noted scientists of the telephone industry from all parts of the country will attend the ninth annual convention of the Telephone Pioneers of America to be held in Cleveland, Sept. 23 and 30, according to H. W. Cleaver, manager of the Ohio Bell Telephone Company here. This is the first time the "Pioneers" have held their convention in Ohio, and they are coming as guests of the Ohio Bell Telephone Company.

Telephone workers from Xenia, O., expect to attend are: Chas. R. Cross, of the Springfield & Xenia Telephone Company and H. W. Cleaver, Chas. A. Scroggy and H. L. Karch of the Ohio Bell Telephone Company.

Special trains from east and west will begin to arrive Thursday afternoon, Sept. 28. Hotel Cleveland will be headquarters of the visiting delegates and an informal gathering there has been planned for Thursday evening. The convention opens with regular sessions Friday morning, Sept. 29th.

"Good fellowship and social gatherings are important features of the gathering of telephone pioneers," said Mr. Cleaver, "as these trail blazers of the industry gather to talk over old times and renew yearly their friendships formed in the early and trying days of the telephone."

"To become a member of the Pioneers a man or woman must have had 21 years experience in the telephone work. There are more than 300 people in Ohio members of the state chapter which is called N. C. Kingsbury Chapter in honor of a former Ohio man, once vice president of the American Telephone & Telegraph Company. Titles and important positions mean nothing in the "Pioneer" organization and a member must have been 21 years in the telephone industry to be eligible for the organization."

CLEVELAND GETS RELIEF IN STRIKE

Cleveland, Sept. 14.—With five of the important roads serving Cleveland parties to the peace agreement reached at Chicago yesterday executives, leaders of the striking shopmen and the business public generally sighed with relief today at the assurance that peace in the tangled railroad situation was once more assured at least in part.

The only important lines serving Cleveland not parties to the peace plan are the Erie and Pennsylvania, but the former is expected to accept the terms reached within a few days. The New York Central, Big Four and Lake Erie, Nickel Plate and Baltimore and Ohio today were making plans to put their men back to work under the settlement.

DEVALERA TO PURSUE FIGHTING POLICY

London, Sept. 14.—Eamonn DeValera, will refuse to accept amnesty from the free state government and will continue his battle against the Anglo-Irish treaty and the Irish constitution, it was indicated by an interview given by the irregular chief-in-reply to general Richard Mulcahy's speech in the Dail Eireann and telegraphed here today.

"The pro-treaty party wants to play with the new army and win cheap military glory," declared DeValera. "I stand by every word that I spoke and every charge I made during the political campaign and the election." DeValera charged that the pro-treaty party "broke their pact with the Irish Republicans at the instance of premier Lloyd George and Colonial Secretary Churchill, with the result that the Republicans are unable to avert a terrible state of affairs."

TELLS WORK BEING DONE BY W. C. T. U. THROUGHOUT INDIA

The work of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union organizers among 320,000,000 people in India, combating the drink habit and advancing the other branches of the activities of the W. C. T. U., was told in an interesting manner by Miss Mary J. Campbell, former Xenia woman, W. C. T. U., leader in India at the annual convention of the Greene County W. C. T. U. held Wednesday at the First Methodist Episcopal Church, in this city.

Miss Campbell's address, the principal feature of the afternoon session of the convention, and a fitting closing number to the interesting program of the day, dealt chiefly with the rapid strides the organization has made in winning its cause.

"We have laid a good foundation," said Miss Campbell, "through our making friends with the natives and telling of the advancement of the cause of prohibition in our own United States."

Headquarters of the W. C. T. U. in India are at Lucknow, the center of all distribution of literature of the organization, and the stronghold of the officers and organizers. The work according to Miss Campbell has now reached a crisis and depends solely on the support of the United States, mainly the W. C. T. U. organizations and temperance workers over the country. A subscription of $15,000 is needed this year for India, and satisfying promises have been given over this country to insure the amount.

Miss Campbell is the only paid W. C. T. U. worker in all India, working among eight provinces, and 320,000,000 people. All other officers and organizers are doing it of their own free will.

The eighteen departments of the W. C. T. U. worker in all India, have succeeded in effecting 300 organizations, the work concerning chiefly the citizens, men, women and children. As a result of the pleas and support of the English government and officers stationed throughout the country, the W. C. T. U. workers will start in the near future to organize temperance bands among the soldiers stationed over the country. "The laxity that resulted from the war brought the drink curse on India," said Miss Campbell during her talk, "and the organizers feel confident in winning over the soldiers to the temperance cause."

The work of the W. C. T. U. organizers in India not only concerns the advancement of prohibition, said Miss Campbell, the workers having reached marked success in combating tobacco, and bringing about the advancement of sanitary measure, and child welfare.

A. the close of her address Miss Campbell made a plea for financial support from the W. C. T. U. organizations, the churches and individuals, to carry on the work in India. Several churches and spiritual bodies over the country have pledged large amounts to be used in the work, the speaker said.

Heavy fighting was reported from Clara Morris in County Kerry.

Indomitable Durant

It is said in automotive circles that W. C. Durant accomplishes what he plans; to him difficulties are so many spurs to greater effort, making one get on the faster.

He is the man who made the Buick. He conceived and organized General Motors, including Cadillac, Chevrolet, Oakland and Oldsmobile. Certainly a considerable monument to one man's tireless energy.

But now, when many men would be content to enjoy a well-earned vacation, he is up to the armpits in the business of launching the crowning effort of his career.

It's "just a real good car," Durant says. "If it's good enough for him to christen with his own name, it's good enough for us," said the trade, and in 141 working days after the announcement they contracted for $31,000,000 worth of Durant cars.

Making 20 Years of Racing Serve Car Owners Today

IN the early days of automobile contests, Barney Oldfield—out to win every race—studied tires. His consistent success led other drivers to ask for tires constructed to his specifications.

Twenty years of road and track victories—with a steady and increasing demand for tires as he built them—convinced Barney Oldfield that these speed tests pointed the way to a better tire for everyday use.

The enthusiastic reception of Oldfield Cords by the public proved he was right. Scores of the most prominent dealers in the country—and many thousands of car owners, experienced in the use of tires—bear witness by their decided preference that Oldfield is doing a bigger and better job of tire making.

This volume, handled in an effective way in every phase of manufacture and distribution, has resulted in price quotations far below what you'd expect on tires known to be better built and more enduring.

Practically every important race event for three years has been won on Oldfields. The Wichita Test Run in which an entire set of Oldfield Cords covered 34,525 miles on rough roads proves the mettle of the Most Trustworthy Tires Built in everyday driving.

The Master Driver and Tire Builder has given the public a new standard of tire wear and tire cost—a true economy that every car owner should know about.

Your Oldfield dealer has these facts—talk to him.

TELLS WORK BEING DONE BY W. C. T. U. THROUGHOUT INDIA

The work of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union organizers among 320,000,000 people in India, combating the drink habit and advancing other branches of the activities of the W. C. T. U., was told in an interesting manner by Miss Mary J. Campbell, former Xenia woman, W. C. T. U., leader in India at the annual convention of the Greene County W. C. T. U. held Wednesday at the First Methodist Episcopal Church, in this city.

Miss Campbell's address, the principal feature of the afternoon session of the convention, and a fitting closing number to the interesting program of the day, dealt chiefly with the rapid strides the organization has made in winning its cause.

"We have laid a good foundation," said Miss Campbell, "through our making friends with the natives, and telling of the advancement of the cause of prohibition in our own United States."

Headquarters of the W. C. T. U. in India are at Lucknow, the center of all distribution of literature of the organization, and the stronghold of the officers and organizers.

The work according to Miss Campbell has now reached a crisis and depends solely on the support of the United States, mainly the W. C. T. U. organizations and temperance workers over the country. A subscription of $15,000 is needed this year for India, and satisfying promises have been given over this country to insure the amount.

Miss Campbell is the only paid W. C. T. U. worker in all India, working among eight provinces, and 320,000,000 people. All other officers and organizers are doing it of their own free will.

The work of the W. C. T. U. organizations in India not only concerns the advancement of prohibition, said Miss Campbell, the workers having reached marked success in combating tobacco, and bringing about the advancement of sanitary measure, and child welfare.

At the close of her address Miss McCampbell made a plea for financial support, from the W. C. T. U. organizations, the churches and individuals, to carry on the work in India. Several churches and spiritual bodies over the country have pledged large amounts to be used in the work, the speaker said.

W. C. T. U. HONORS MEMORY OF FORMER MEMBERS AT MEET

Impressive memorial services for deceased members were held by six unions of Greene County Woman's Christian Temperance Union, at the closing session of the annual county convention, held Wednesday at the First Methodist Episcopal Church in this city.

Twelve members of the six unions have died during the past year, and it was in their honor that the members in session Wednesday held the services. The three Xenia unions, A. C. Turrell Union, Xenia Union and South Side Union, represented the largest body of deceased members, the services of the A. C. Turrell Union being held for four members, Miss Anna Clever, Mrs. William R. Torrence, Mrs. Eber Reynolds, and Miss Anna Shepard, Xenia Union for Mrs. W. C. Hutchison, Mrs. W. L. Fulkerson, and Miss Henrietta Krepps, and South Side Union, for Mrs. J. A. Wright.

Mrs. Mary Murdock, honorary president, and pioneer worker in the Greene County W. C. T. U., was honored by the members of the Cedarville Union. Mrs. Arthur Foster, member of the Bowersville Union, who died during the past year, was honored by that body. Yellow Springs Union, paid tribute to Mrs. W. F. Drake, and Mrs. Mary Robinson.

Mrs. Carrie L. Flatter of Yellow Springs, re-elected president of the county organization was elected delegate to the National W. C. T. U. Convention to be held in Philadelphia the first part of October, or the latter part of November. Mrs. Mattie Smith of Spring Valley was appointed Mrs. Flatter's alternate. A vote was passed at the county session Wednesday to extend an invitation for the 1923 National Convention of the organization to be held in this city. The decision of the last place will be announced following the convention at Philadelphia.

Prince Bullawa Citawayo, tribal chieftain of South Africa, who is giving a series of lectures in this city, addressed the session Wednesday afternoon, his talk following that of Miss Mary J. Campbell, W. C. T. U. worker in India. The progress of the work in India as told by Miss Campbell was contrasted by the African chief with that in Africa, where no W. C. T. U. workers have been stationed. The temperance work in Africa will be inaugurated within the next few months according to W. C. T. U. officials.

The progress of the Greene County W. C. T. U. during the past years, was illustrated by W. C. Hutchison, venerable business man of the city, during the meeting. Mr. Hutchison recalled the launching of the work in the county and remembered the time when he was the only business man who was excommunicated by the temperance cause in this city.

Sergeant James L. Everett has returned from the American Legion Convention at Dayton with a favorable report to the John Roan Post of this city. He wishes it to be understood by members of his post and those interested in the doings of the Legion that this organization is doing a great service for the ex-service men of the state of Ohio. There was one resolution adopted by the State organization that should interest colored people here and elsewhere. It was submitted by J. A. Green of Dayton. The Resolution follows: "Whereas in the Preamble of our National Constitution, we assert that one of the purposes in associating ourselves together is to combat the autocracy of both the classes and the masses; to make right the master of might, to safeguard and transmit to posterity the principles of justice, freedom and democracy; Whereas in some states in the Union, colored ex-service men are not permitted to form posts of the American Legion; Whereas the patriotism of the Negroes has always been unquestioned, and the record of the colored soldiers in the war was above reproach; Therefore be it resolved that this Fourth Annual Convention of the American Legion of Ohio instruct its delegates to the National Convention in New Orleans to go on record as favoring an investigation of this matter by the National Organization and the granting of charters by the National organization to groups of ex-service men who desire to form Legion posts, thus enabling them to become Legionnaires."

ACREAGE IN CLOVER IS 30 P. C. GREATER

Reports indicate that the acreage cut for clover seed in Ohio this year is 30 per cent greater than last year according to Statistician West of the State Federal Crop Reporting Service. The yield per acre will be from 15 to 25 per cent higher than last year and will be not far from 1.4 bushels per acre.

The greatest increase is in red clover though there is apparently an increase of from 10 to 15 per cent in the alsike acreage cut for seed.

Sweet clover seed acreage is from 10 to 15 per cent above that of a year ago.

The acreage cut for timothy seed does not show as large a percentage increase as for the clovers, being around 10 per cent.

FIRST VICTORY IS WON BY THE BUS LINES AT HEARING

Interurban auto bus interests won their first victory before the State Public Utilities commission when that body refused to compel the bus line operating between Dayton and Xenia to increase its rates or to stop its operation altogether on the charge that it was engaged in unfair competition with the Dayton, Springfield and Xenia Southern Railway.

The Dayton, Springfield and Xenia Southern Railway represented by W. S. McConaughy, former city attorney of Dayton, had made complaint with the utilities commission that the bus operator was indulging in competition ruinous and unfair to the traction company alleged further that the bus operator was losing money. Attorneys F. W. Kriebel, S. B. Jackson and Carl Heindl, representing the bus lines, introduced Clarence Stoner operator of the bus lines, who presented his books, showing that he was making a 20 per cent profit on the capital invested.

The bus line attorneys argued that since the busses had been classed as common carriers they were entitled to operate under the same laws that govern common carriers that operate on fixed tracks. It was argued also that in view of the profit being made by the busses they should not be required to raise their rates, as petitioned for by the traction company.

The Public Utilities Commission up held all the arguments of the bus men and told the traction attorney that unless he could bring more substantial facts before the commission it would be compelled to dismiss the case. The charge against the bus line was brought before the committee several months ago, when operators brought a counter charge that the traction railway was discriminating in favor of car passengers by giving free admission to Kilt Kare park, while admission was charged to those coming to the park in the interurban busses.

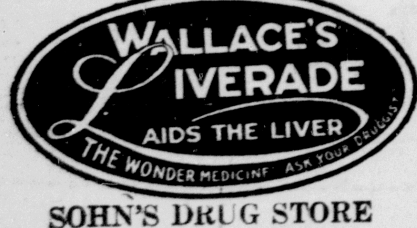

A uniform charge is now made at the gate of the park, although passengers to the park on traction cars are given a ticket of admission with out charge.

PRESENT NEW ELECTRIC FANS TO O. S. & S. O. HOME HERE

One hundred and fifty of the members of the Sons of Veterans and kindred auxiliaries from over the state were entertained at a sumptuous dinner at the O. S. & S. O. Home Sunday at noon when they formally presented to the Home the eighteen new electric fans which have just been installed in the children's dining room. Among the guests were prominent officers of the S. of V., and Ladies Auxiliary from Springfield, Dayton, Cincinnati, Columbus, Dayton and London, beside a number of the local S. of V. and auxiliary.

State Commander Brown made the presentation speech and Supt. Garver responded in behalf of the Home pupils and officers, expressing their deep appreciation of the gift which will mean so much to the comfort of the children. Short speeches were also made by Past Commanders George Shultz and Henry Long of Dayton.

The eighteen new fans which were presented are forty-two inch arm fans and completely equip the large dining room with fans.

Gout, Ulcers, and Blood Diseases, acts on the liver and kidneys. It is a body cleanser, and a nerve tonic. It seldom fails. In fact, it fails so seldom that we agree to return the purchase price to any user who is not satisfied.

The wholesome ingredients in the little capsules of Masters' Recommendation contain nothing violent or harmful. They work gently but surely. It usually takes four or five boxes to complete the cleansing, but a great improvement is almost always felt before all of the first box has been taken. Men attach their names only to wares of which they are proud. Knowing the great capacity of Masters' Recommendation, to relieve suffering, I am proud to put my name as a stamp of approval on it.

To insure personal satisfaction Masters' Recommendation is sold directly by mail. If we didn't treat you square, Uncle Sam would soon tend to us.

Paris still believes in beads and is using bead embroidery on many of the Fall dresses for both day and evening. Many of the most striking evening frocks, in fact, are those that are beaded all over, and the effect is so beautiful that few of the American buyers have been able to resist them notwithstanding the uncertainty of their popularity in the States.

Another thing that is being insisted on in these early collections is the long skirt for evening wear. The length for street wear is medium, reaching to about eight inches from the ground, but the evening frock must extend to at least the shoe-top or longer, if the hem is transparent as a great deal of lace is used in the new fashions.

Novel sleeve effects distinguish the new things and many of the nicest dresses are sleeveless, with straight silhouette, and hipline instead of waistline. This idea is illustrated in the bluish pink silk crepe frock sketched above in which the panel and wing sleeves are embroidered with crystal beads.

POLICE CONTINUE EFFORTS Columbus, Sept. 14.—Apparently without clues the police today are continuing their efforts to apprehend the murders of Frank W. Cooke, North High street cigar stand proprietor, and Andrew J. Empfield, garage night watchman, 1405 South High street whose lifeless bodies were yesterday morning. It is thought that the murders were committed by robbers.

State Commander Brown made the presentation speech and Supt. Garver responded in behalf of the Home pupils and officers, expressing their deep appreciation of the gift which will mean so much to the comfort of the children. Short speeches were also made by Past Commanders George Shultz and Henry Long of Dayton.

According to Hessler, Mrs. Kukuff left her husband, Frank Kukuff, in Youngstown, six months ago, taking their marriage certificate with her. Three weeks ago she met Fairmount, a young cigar salesman in Pittsburgh and induced him to go away with her. Hessler says. They travelled about the country. Fairmount taking the name of Mrs. Kukuff's husband, which appeared on the marriage certificate. Hessler declares Mrs. Kukuff exerted much influence over Fairmount. WHITE SLAVE RING ACTIVITIES ARE FOUND BY POLICE

Women Rather Than Men Are Moving Spirits It is Said.

Detroit, Sept. 14.—Existence of an alleged white slave ring, in which women rather than men are the moving spirits, and in which the "badger game" plays an important part, came to light today with the confessions of a man and a woman held by the federal authorities, according to Fred Hessler, local chief of the department of justice.

LaDonna Fontaine, 19, whose real name is Mrs. Roe Kukuff, of Youngstown, Ohio, and William Fairmount, 21, of Pittsburgh, are the man and woman held, charged with conspiracy to violate the Mann act, and whose confessions Hessler asserts probably will lead to several other arrests.

The couple were arraigned before U. S. Commissioner J. Stanley Hurd, and pleaded not guilty and each is held in $2,000 bond.

According to Hessler, Mrs. Kukuff left her husband, Frank Kukuff, in Youngstown, six months ago, taking their marriage certificate with her. Three weeks ago she met Fairmount, a young cigar salesman in Pittsburgh and induced him to go away with her. Hessler says. They travelled about the country. Fairmount taking the name of Mrs. Kukuff's husband, which appeared on the marriage certificate. Hessler declares Mrs. Kukuff exerted much influence over Fairmount. She always registered for him at hotels, offering the excuse that his arm was injured. He was virtually kept prison by Mrs. Kukuff according to Hessler, and she often locked him in the hotel rooms, fearing he would desert her.

WHITE SLAVE RING ACTIVITIES ARE FOUND BY POLICE

Women Rather Than Men Are Moving Spirits It is Said.

Detroit, Sept. 14.—Existence of an alleged white slave ring, in which women rather than men are the moving spirits, and in which the "badger game" plays an important part, came to light today with the confessions of a man and a woman held by the federal authorities, according to Fred Hessler, local chief of the department of justice.

LaDonna Fontaine, 19, whose real name is Mrs. Roe Kukuff, of Youngstown, Ohio, and William Fairmount, 21, of Pittsburgh, are the man and woman held, charged with conspiracy to violate the Mann act, and whose confessions Hessler asserts probably will lead to several other arrests.

The couple were arraigned before U. S. Commissioner J. Stanley Hurd, and pleaded not guilty and each is held in $2,000 bond.

According to Hessler, Mrs. Kukuff left her husband, Frank Kukuff, in Youngstown, six months ago, taking their marriage certificate with her. Three weeks ago she met Fairmount, a young clerk salesman in Pittsburgh and induced him to go away with her, Hessler says. They traveled about the country, Fairmount taking the name of Mrs. Kukuff's husband, which appeared on the marriage certificate. Hessler declares Mrs. Kukuff exerted much influence over Fairmount. She always registered for him at hotels, offering the excuse that his arm was injured. He was virtually kept prison by Mrs. Kukuff according to Hessler, and she often locked him in the hotel rooms, fearing he would desert her.

GIRL SAYS SHE DID NOT THINK HOLD UP ATTEMPTED ON PIKE

Following the inability of the Coroner to locate Sheriff Lincoln Funderburgh and Deputy Sheriff Day to put them on the stand Wednesday afternoon, the inquest was continued until Thursday afternoon at four o'clock, after which time Coroner Haines will render his verdict.

According to Miss Humphrey's story she and Moore were driving toward this city sometime between 7:30 and 8:30 o'clock when they noticed the tire along the right hand side of the road near the wheel track. She was driving at the time. She said they at first thought it was an old tire, and then it came to her like a flash that it was something else. She thought it was a brand new tire she said.

"Harold had heart trouble," she said, "and I didn't want to frighten him. I drove on to a little house near there and turned, drove back to the road intersection and turned again and came back. In the meantime Harold was on the same side of the machine as the tire. I was driving and he was on the running board. He caught hold of the tire, but didn't get it, because it was fastened. We then drove on toward Xenia.

"I said, 'should we report it?' and we studied about it and then decided we should. We reported it to the colored policeman. I hailed him, and he came out to the machine. We weren't frightened; at any time, I told him the same story I've told you. I saw a man moving between the trees at the time but Harold didn't see anybody."

The girl continued that they did not tell anyone there was a hold-up. She said they weren't frightened that way and that they merely warned the officers. They didn't say anybody tried to hold them up, she said, and the colored policeman told them to go to the sheriff and repeat the story to him. She said the sheriff was at the Justice of the Peace office and "we repeated the story exactly as we did to the colored policeman. We didn't express any opinion—we didn't have any," she said.

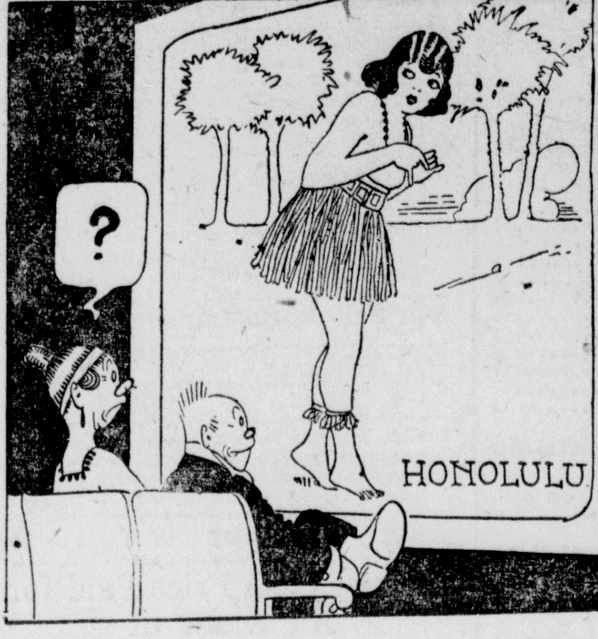

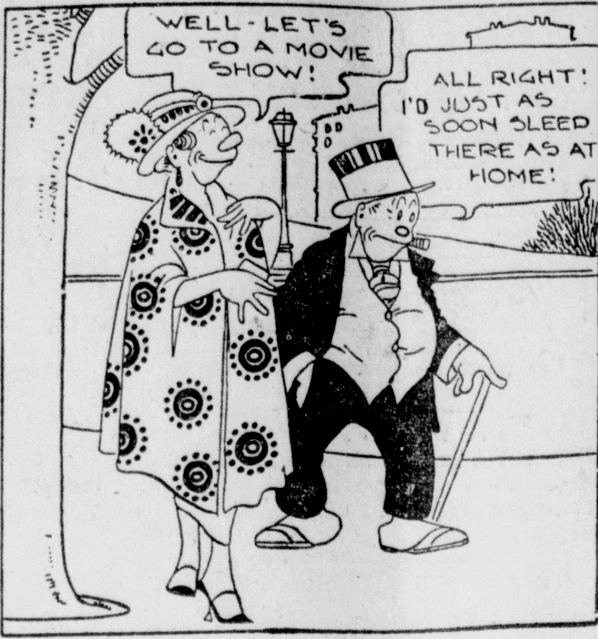

Miss Humphrey said that neither she nor Moore said they thought there was an attempted hold-up. She said they told the sheriff that the colored policeman told them to tell him. They merely wanted an investigation of the incident, she said. She said they saw the sheriff go out and they followed four or five minutes later. She said when they arrived on the scene they saw the sheriff's machine stopped and they stopped further up the road. She testified that she heard officers say "halt" and heard other voices also, but that neither could tell what was being said. She said they didn't hear the boys say anything.

Miss Humphrey testified that, after the shooting, two men, whom she thought were officers, asked them to bring a man, whom they thought was an officer and who was wounded, to the hospital in Xenia. She said they waited around five minutes, but that no one brought an injured man to their machine. Then she said she learned that the wounded man was dead, and they drove on to her home. Sunday evening, she said, they came through Xenia going to Camden. She said Harold Moore is sick, but that she did not think it was the result of the shooting, because he had a weak heart and was subject to heart attacks.

Under cross-examination, Miss Humphrey said that neither Moore nor she was frightened. "We were having as much fun as anybody," she said. "I guess we craved the adventure of the thing. We wouldn't have gone back after the tire if we had been frightened." She reiterated also that at no time did either of them say they had been held-up or that they thought they were going to be held up. She said also under cross examination that the colored policeman stayed with them until they finished telling their story to the sheriff. She said that neither she nor Moore said they had run through three or four men and almost hit them, as was brought out in previous testimony. She was not questioned further.

Besides the testimony of Miss Humphrey, no further testimony was taken Wednesday afternoon with the exception of that taken at the Espey hospital, of Dorsey Nichols and Warren Middleton, injured boys who have been patients there since the shooting. Dorsey Nichols was the first to testify. He told the same story of the trick the boys were playing with the tire, as the other boys. According to his story, he was behind the second lumber pile and Victor Weaver was behind the first pile pulling the wire. He said he didn't pay any attention to the officers' machine when it drove up. He said that the officers never shouted except about the time they hit him. He said he heard some one shout "halt" at the same time he was hit. He said he thought it was Simms who shot him. He said the officers shot several times before he started to run, and he thought the bullets were getting too close, and so he decided to "beat it." He said after he started to run he heard Don Weaver yell "don't shoot." He didn't remember of a pause in the shooting. He said he thought about all of the officers were shooting. He looked back once, he said, and it looked like all of them were shooting. He said he saw Funderburgh with a rifle and saw Simms with a revolver. He said Simms jumped over the fence and came down toward where he was. The first time he was hit he said, he kept on going. He thought a bullet glanced off his arm, and another hit his shoulder at about the same time, and he thought he was hit by shot gun shots. The last time he was hit, he said, he took a step and fell. He said he saw his brother, Volney, and that they both fell at the same time. He saw the little Keiter boy when he started back up the hill he said and heard him shout. Dorsey testified that he didn't know which officer pointed a gun at the Keiter boy. He said he didn't see Burns with a gun and that he didn't remember Dav with a gun. He said Simms looked at him and then walked back to the fence, and then walked back to the fence.

Warren Middleton was interrupted while he was reading "The Sheik," in order to tell his story. He too, was back of the second lumber pile, he said. He testified that he didn't hear the officers say a word to "stop" or "halt" before they began shooting. He said he didn't see anyone pick up the tire, because he couldn't see from where he was. He said he couldn't see anybody shooting and he didn't run, but just laid still behind the lumber pile. He said when there was a pause in the shooting he thought they were going to quit, and he stood up. I was then he said that someone shouted "halt" and at the same moment he was shot. He said he didn't know which officer shot him, but that it seemed like more than one shooting all the time. He heard someone say "don't shoot," but didn't know whether it was one of the boys or the officers. He remembered an officer saying "don't you run." Five or six shots were fired before anyone ran, he said, and they kept shooting while they were shouting "halt," he said. Warren was "pretty sure" his hands weren't up. He said he was expecting to run when he was hit.

SIXTEEN INJURED IN TROLLEY CRASH

Mt. Carmel, Pa., Sept. 14.—Sixteen persons were seriously injured and are receiving treatment in the Shamokin state hospital and a score of others received minor body lacerations as the result of a collision of two trolley cars of the Shamokin and Mt. Carmel transportation company line yesterday. A number of those taken to the hospital are not expected to live, many of them sustaining fractured skulls and broken limbs.

Cross-examination, Miss Humphrey said that neither Moore nor she was frightened. "We were having as much fun as anybody," she said. "I guess we craved the adventure of the thing. We wouldn't have gone back after the tire if we had been frightened." She reiterated also that at no time did either of them say they had been held-up or that they thought they were going to be held up. CEDARVILLE COLLEGE OPENS TWENTY NINTH YEAR WEDNESDAY WITH RECORD NUMBER OF STUDENTS; HAS SEVEN NEW PROFESSORS

The twenty-ninth year of Cedarville College opened Wednesday with the largest attendance in its history. One hundred and thirty five students were registered on the opening day and more will register this and next week it is expected.

The opening address was delivered

ASK LEGISLATURE FOR FUNDS TO FIGHT DREAD CORN BORER

Columbus, Sept. 14.—Funds with which to fight the dreaded European corn borer which has been discovered in sufficient number in several northern Ohio counties as to warrant quarantining those counties are to be asked of the state legislature.

Director of Agriculture Taber declared that increased forces are necessary to carry on the work designed to prevent the spread of the corn borer. Eleven crews aggregating 70 men, he stated, are now employed doing scout duty and quarantine work in northern Ohio.

Practically the only means of eliminating the corn borer after it once gains a foothold, is to burn everything in the infested district," director Taber said.

He stated that Ohio's corn crop would not be seriously endangered for at least two or three years owing to the slow growth of the corn borer moth.

It is reported at the state department of agriculture that additional northern Ohio counties have reported the appearance of the corn borer, notwithstanding strict quarantine of districts already known as affected. Consideration of the advisability of extending the quarantine to cover these newly affected districts is to be given at a public hearing here Friday.

A Stenographer's Romance

BY JANE PHELPS

Chapter 70

Miss Jones left Mr. Fallon alone and he at once remarked:

"Miss Nellie, has Miss Jones told you she is leaving us?"

"Why—no—Mr. Fallon." The girl's heart sank. Would that mean she might have to go too?

"She leaves on Saturday. She is going to be married. Would you like to take her place, be my private secretary?"

For a moment Nellie could form no reply, although her lips moved.

"I think you are capable. She tells me she has put a great deal of her work upon you with this in view."

"Oh thank you, Mr. Fallon I should love to try to fill the place," Nellie replied, her cheeks flaming, her eyes shining. She was not to be sent away, but given this wonderful chance—and she would be near Mr. George. "But are you sure I can do the work? I should hate to make it harder for you." Her naïve reply caused him to look at her queerly, before he answered:

"Quite sure. I have intended to tell you how much I appreciate your faithfulness." It was his turn to flush and hesitate. Nellie could scarcely believe she heard aright. Was George Fallon stumbling over a speech to her—his stenographer?

When Miss Jones returned she smiled encouragingly at Nellie. And when the girl tried to thank her said:

"You owe it entirely to your own efforts. Nellie. You have always been punctual, done your work well. But now you have also developed an initiative, a knowledge of the business that makes you invaluable to Mr. Fallon. You will not grow careless I am sure else I would not say this to you. I hope you will be as happy in the situation as I have been. He tells me you will receive the same salary."

Nellie knew that Miss Jones received $40 a week. Could she Nellie Riley, the slave of Hudson Corners, be worth as much? It was almost unbelievable, almost too good to be true. "Oh, I hope I'll make good!" Nellie exclaimed. "I'll just die if I don't! But I will! Then I'll go back to The Corners some day and show them Nellie Riley is some good even if they didn't think so and I had to run away from them."

"Of course you will," Miss Jones answered smiling. She had heard the story of Nellie's life at the Corners, and was always amused at any reference to it.

All that week Nellie felt as if she were walking on air. She had told no one save Cora and Mrs. Roberts. In fact she had no one else to tell, but she had been more her old self, had been full of happiness and it had flowed over upon Donald Horne, even on the acid-faced spinster.

Day after day she had realized more keenly that George Fallon meant ev-everything to her; not that she dreamed of him as giving her the slightest place in this thoughts, save that he would live to any girl who attended to his business in a way to please him. But to be so near him, to hear every morning his pleasant greeting, to realize his consideration through the day, his "goodnight, Miss Nellie" when she left the office—this was happiness indeed.

Occasionally she found herself wondering what it would be like to be loved by him? But she soon remembered who she was, that they were of different worlds. She must not allow herself to become foolish, to think of the impossible. Hadn't she witnessed enough unhappiness in the girls she knew who had allowed themselves to dream? He was miles and miles above her.

"I'd have to take an airplane to ever reach his level," she said grimly to herself. "Then, like as not, he'd have a better one, one that could fly higher."

Yet more than once that week he set her heart beating.

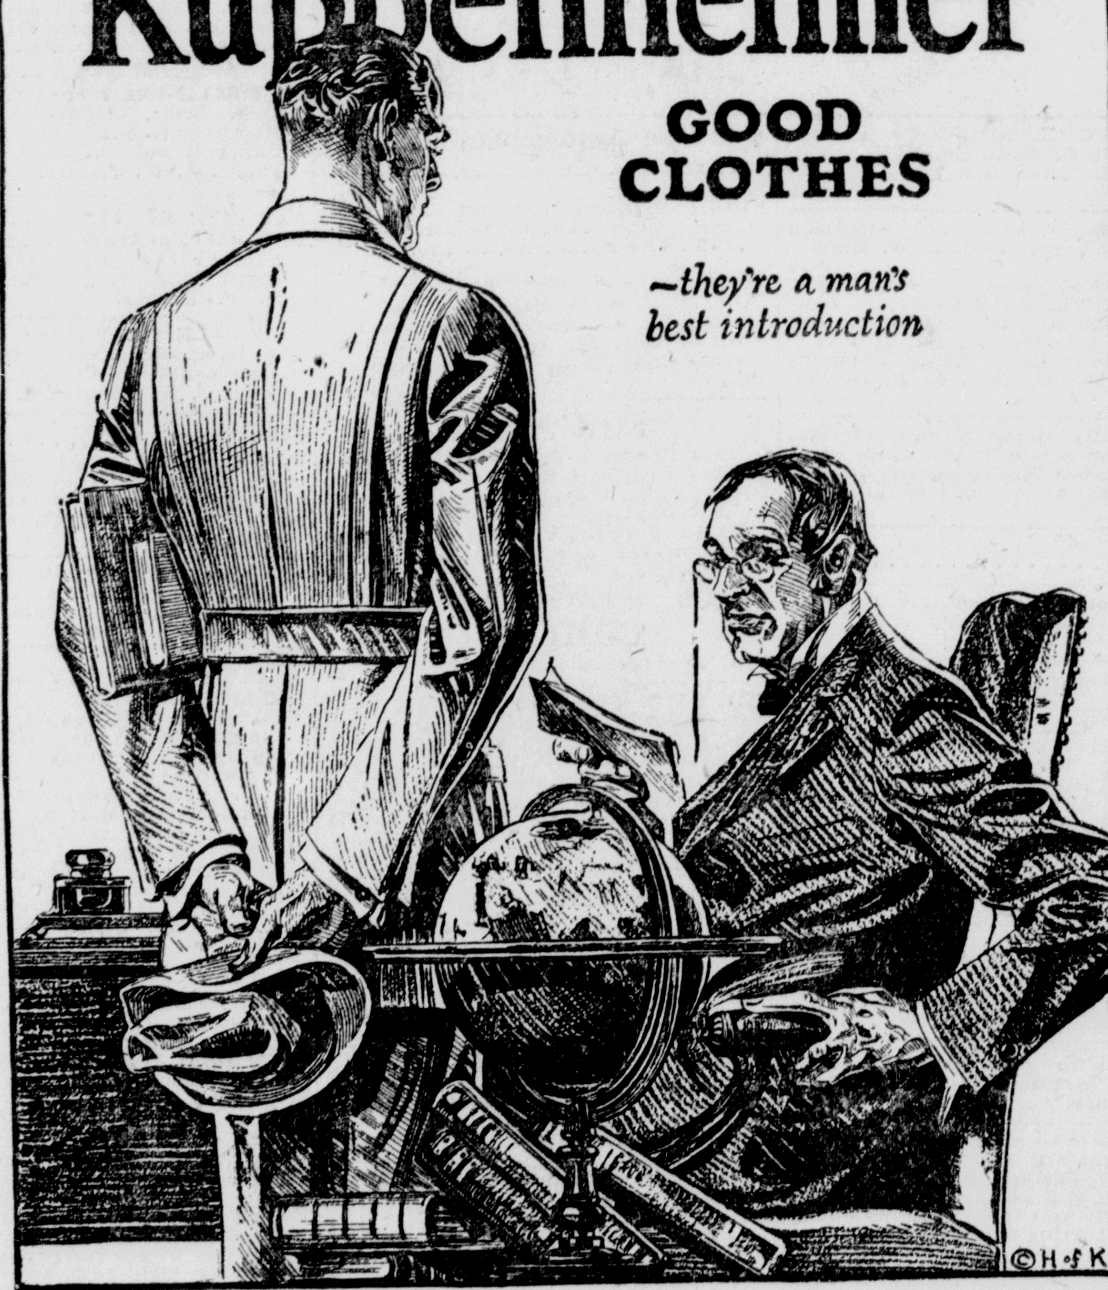

"You have very lovely hair," he said one day, apropos of nothing. "You wear it very becomingly."

That night Nellie's dreams were all of George Fallon. He had noticed her hair, had spoken of it. She seemed to feel his fingers caressing it, and woke to find her pillows wet with tears.

GOOD CLOTHES

The Cap that never fits

"NO harm can come to me from coffee or tea," is what so many people say. Yet those same people are often quick to note the signs of coffee harm in others.

How familiar the danger signals are—upset digestion, sleepless nights and irritability—all warnings of the nervous breakdown that lurks just a little way ahead. How easy and how delightful the escape—by drinking delicious Instant Postum instead of the beverages that contain the irritant caffeine.

Instant Postum is the tempting cereal drink made from roasted wheat. It is prepared instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water. Its snappy flavor is not unlike that of coffee.

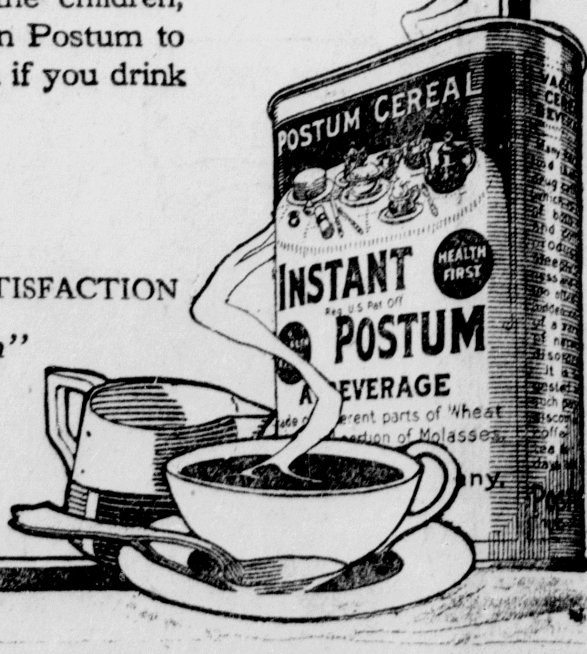

It is safe for everybody in your household including the children, and there's nothing in Postum to keep you awake even if you drink it at midnight.

PARTY CAMPAIGNS
GET UNDER WAY IN STORM OF ORATORY

Washington, Oct. 14.—The comparative quiet that has thus far marked the conduct of the national political campaign ends with today. Starting next week the accelerator will be "stepped on" by both major parties all along the line.

The country is to be drenched with a drumfire of political oratory for the next three weeks in a volume not often witnessed in off years. Virtually the whole of President Harding's cabinet, will swing into line next week in various parts of the country, with the heaviest concentration to be placed in the middle west and notably in Ohio, the cockpit of this year's struggle.

Secretary of Labor James J. Davis opened his national tour at Wilmington, Del., last night with a smashing attack on the Wilson administration and a vigorous defense of the change in policies that have been inaugurated under the Harding administration.

Speaking as a cabinet officer Davis criticized the administration of Woodrow Wilson with a vehemence unusual in cabinet speeches, terming it "a saturnalia of misgovernment," and accusing it of having "bartered away our diplomatic birth right for a sorry mess of sticky sentimentalism."

Davis today inaugurated his transcontinental tour—the only member of the cabinet to essay a trip to the Pacific coast. Tonight he speaks in Athens, O.

The one member of the cabinet who will not take any active part in the campaign is Andrew W. Mellon, secretary of the treasury. To every appeal from the Republican campaign managers, Mellon has replied that he never made a political speech in his life and that he considers the age of 67 too late to begin.

GREENE COUNTY'S
DELEGATES TO MEET
RETURN TO XENIA

Greene County delegates to the United Presbyterian Synodical meeting held this week at Indianapolis, Ind., returned Thursday to their homes. Those who attended the session were the Rev. Chas. P. Proudfit, W. B. Bryson, and Moses Hagler, from the First United Presbyterian Church, this city, the Rev. J. P. White, and J. E. Hastings, of Cedarville; the Rev. L. L. Gray, and Joseph Turnbull, of Jamestown and John Kyle and W. T. Waddle of Clifton.

Mr. Bryson, one of the Xenia delegation appeared on the program of the meeting, Wednesday evening, as a member of the Committee on the Enlarged Service of the Boards of the Church, giving the entire report of the committee. The committee was created in 1920 for the purpose of reorganizing the board of the church and making such changes as would lead to more work in the church, according to Mr. Bryson. There are eleven members on the committee, one for each of the eleven synods of the United Presbyterian Church. Mr. Bryson represented the Second Synod, which comprises part of Ohio, Indiana, Tennessee and the entire south. The members include five ministers and six laymen.

While in Indianapolis, Mr. and Mrs. Bryson were guests of the Rev. J. A. Henderson, D. D. and Mrs. Henderson. The Rev. Henderson was former pastor of the Sugar Creek congregation.

MRS. FESS TALKS TO OHIO WOMEN

Columbus, Oct. 14.—Adoption of a resolution approving the Dyer anti-lynching bill, and determination to wage a campaign against the independent candidacy of Miss Florence Allen, Cleveland, for the State Supreme Court featured a meeting of Ohio Republican women leaders at the Hotel Deshler.

Speakers included Mrs. S. D. Fess, Zellow Springs, wife of Congressman Fess, Republican candidate for U. S. Senator, and Mrs. J. G. Battelle, Columbus, vice chairman of the Republican state campaign committee who declared that Miss Allen, one of Cuyahoga county's common pleas judges, had acknowledged she is a Democrat. Mrs. Carmi A. Thompson, Cleveland, wife of the Republican candidate for governor, and wives of other candidates, were presented.

WORLD RECORD SMASHED.

Mt. Clemens, Mich., Oct. 14.—The world's record for 200 kilometers was smashed here today by two entries in the first flight. Lieut. E. H. Barksdale, flying a Verville speedy high speed pursuit plane, averaged 180.87 miles an hour, and Lieut. F. B. Johnson, flying the same type of machine, went 200 kilometers at an average speed of 178 miles an hour. The former record was held by George Kirsch, when he went 174.9 miles an hour in France last year.

ECONOMY PLEDGED BY
CARMI A. THOMPSON
IN COUNTY ADDRESSES

Promising Greene County voters a business administration at Columbus including an economic program of operation, and defending the new tariff as the key to future unequalled prosperity in this country, Carmi A. Thompson, Republican gubernatorial candidate and Congressman J. Adam Bede, of Minnesota, opened the Republican fall campaign with speeches at Spring Valley, Wilberforce, Cedarville and Jamestown Saturday, and then returned to Xenia for a final meeting at City Hall Theater here at three o'clock.

Col. Thompson, who heads the State Republican ticket this fall, expressed himself as an advocate of economical measures in the operation of government and pledged himself in the entire country. When the present Republican administration in the state as well as in the nation went into office, hundreds of thousands of men were out of employment in this state. There was discontent everywhere as the result of the Democratic administration in power.

"That has all changed now," he said. "Work has become plentiful. Business conditions have become better again until now there is a labor shortage in every part of the state. Confidence in the future is rising higher and higher everywhere. Under these conditions talks of depression and discontent by our Democratic adversaries will not fool the intelligent voters of this state." Col. Thompson then pledged himself to put more business into state government, assuring that the present government had already laid the foundation of good business principles.

"I am a firm believer in good roads," he said. "I think the farmer is very much interested in the inter-county roads, running from the rural community to the county market. I propose to see to it that the people who pay for these roads shall have something to say as to the kind and character of material that should go into the road as well as just where the roads shall be built. I also believe it is essential that a maintenance fund be established for the keeping of the roads after they are built. It is poor economy to my mind to build roads and then let them go to pieces because of a lack of a maintenance fund."

"The taxation question which has been a political football for the past 20 years must be settled in a business like manner and in such a way that the tax will fall more equitably on all our citizens. This cannot be done by passing the buck by appointing committees or commissions. That one direct state levy can be eliminated, I am certain. However, I believe that every direct state levy can be eliminated if the business principles are applied to the state's business."

"With the getting more for every dollar we spend and by stopping the extravagant state spending we will be on the road to the reduction of the heavy tax burden. This will do away with that political catch phrase 'the watchdog of the treasury,' who in the last analysis is always chained and muzzled and who only growls after the money is gone—and then only for political effect."

Col. Thompson and Mr. Bede arrived in Xenia from Dayton Saturday morning having addressed meetings in Warren County Friday. They were met here by a party consisting of L. T. Marshall, chairman of the Republican Executive Committee; Rep. M. A. Broadstone, J. A. Finney, P. H. Flynn, Fred Flynn, Steele Poague and Prosecuting Attorney J. Kenneth Williamson, George Wood, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Dadds, Miss Helen Boyd, Mrs. Johnson, C. L. Wright and Walter Kliff and escorted to Spring Valley where the first meeting was held. The party then returned through Xenia to Wilberforce and from there went to Cedarville, where the speakers addressed crowds at both places. About 125 people heard the speakers at Spring Valley. From Cedarville the party went to Jamestown and returned here for a meeting at three o'clock at City Hall Theater, where they did in previous meetings.

The speakers were introduced by L. T. Marshall who in presenting Col. Thompson pointed to his record as a public servant and declared that not in many years have people of Ohio had the opportunity of voting for a man whose ability so well qualified him for the position he is seeking. He referred to Thompson's record as a member of the advisory committee of the world's disarmament conference and recited the fact that Thompson as chairman of the subcommittee personally wrote and introduced the resolution which was unanimously adopted by the conference as wholly abolishing the use of poisonous gases in future warfare. He also told of Thompson's rise from a trapper boy in the coal mines of southern Ohio to speaker of the house of representatives, secretary of state two terms, assistant secretary of interior, secretary to President Taft and finally Treasurer of the United States.

The Republican speakers are to be dinner guests at the Ohio Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' Home here at six o'clock and will then go to Wilmington for a visit, returning to Columbus Saturday night late.

"I will see to it that the tax payers receive one dollar's worth of government for every dollar spent. I expect to give the citizens an economical administration, but not at the expense of the health of our citizens or the education of our children." Col. Thompson also referred to Japan's ratification of the arms conference as another nail in the League of Nations coffin and predicted that so far as this country is concerned, it will be kept there.

The Republican candidate for Governor predicted that the Democratic party's hopes of carrying Ohio based on the belief that the people are dissatisfied and discontented and want a change, will result in a sad disappointment on election day. "The Republican party has always been the party of prosperity," he said. "Conditions are changing for the better all the time in Ohio as well as in the entire country. When the present Republican administration in the state as well as in the nation went into office, hundreds of thousands of men were out of employment in this state. There was discontent everywhere as the result of the Democratic administration in power."

The speakers were introduced by L. T. Marshall who in presenting Col. Thompson pointed to his record as a public servant and declared that not in many years have people of Ohio had the opportunity of voting for a man whose ability so well qualified him for the position he is seeking. He referred to Thompson's record as a member of the advisory committee of the world's disarmament conference and recited the fact that Thompson as chairman of the subcommittee personally wrote and introduced the resolution which was unanimously adopted by the conference as wholly abolishing the use of poisonous gases in future warfare. He also told of Thompson's rise from a trapper boy in the coal mines of southern Ohio to speaker of the house of representatives, secretary of state two terms, assistant secretary of interior, secretary to President Taft and finally Treasurer of the United States.

The Republican speakers are to be dinner guests at the Ohio Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' Home here at six o'clock and will then go to Wilmington for a visit, returning to Columbus Saturday night late.

"I will see to it that the tax payers receive one dollar's worth of government for every dollar spent. I expect to give the citizens an economical administration, but not at the expense of the health of our citizens or the education of our children." Col. Thompson also referred to Japan's ratification of the arms conference as another nail in the League of Nations coffin and predicted that so far as this country is concerned, it will be kept there.

The Republican candidate for Governor predicted that the Democratic party's hopes of carrying Ohio based on the belief that the people are dissatisfied and discontented and want a change, will result in a sad disappointment on election day. "The Republican party has always been the party of prosperity," he said. "Conditions are changing for the better all the time in Ohio as well as in the entire country. When the present Republican administration in the state as well as in the nation went into office, hundreds of thousands of men were out of employment in this state. There was discontent everywhere as the result of the Democratic administration in power."

"That has all changed now," he said. "Work has become plentiful. Business conditions have become better again until now there is a labor shortage in every part of the state. Confidence in the future is rising higher and higher everywhere. Under these conditions talks of depression and discontent by our Democratic adversaries will not fool the intelligent voters of this state." Col. Thompson then pledged himself to put more business into state government, assuring that the present government had already laid the foundation of good business principles.

"I am a firm believer in good roads," he said. "I think the farmer is very much interested in the inter-county roads, running from the rural community to the county market. I propose to see to it that the people who pay for these roads shall have something to say as to the kind and character of material that should go into the road as well as just where the roads shall be built. I also believe it is essential that a maintenance fund be established for the keeping of the roads after they are built. It is poor economy to my mind to build roads and then let them go to pieces because of a lack of a maintenance fund."

"The taxation question which has been a political football for the past 20 years must be settled in a business like manner and in such a way that the tax will fall more equitably on all our citizens. This cannot be done by passing the buck by appointing committees or commissions. That one direct state levy can be eliminated, I am certain. However, I believe that every direct state levy can be eliminated if the business principles are applied to the state's business."

"With the getting more for every dollar we spend and by stopping the extravagant state spending we will be on the road to the reduction of the heavy tax burden. This will do away with that political catch phrase 'the watchdog of the treasury,' who in the last analysis is always chained and muzzled and who only growls after the money is gone—and then only for political effect."

Col. Thompson and Mr. Bede arrived in Xenia from Dayton Saturday morning having addressed meetings in Warren County Friday. They were met here by a party consisting of L. T. Marshall, chairman of the Republican Executive Committee; Rep. M. A. Broadstone, J. A. Finney, P. H. Flynn, Fred Flynn, Steele Poague and Prosecuting Attorney J. Kenneth Williamson, George Wood, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Dadds, Miss Helen Boyd, Mrs. Johnson, C. L. Wright and Walter Kliff and escorted to Spring Valley where the first meeting was held. The party then returned through Xenia to Wilberforce and from there went to Cedarville, where the speakers addressed crowds at both places. About 125 people heard the speakers at Spring Valley. From Cedarville the party went to Jamestown and returned here for a meeting at three o'clock at City Hall Theater, where they did in previous meetings.

NEW SOIL ACIDITY TEST BEING USED IN GREENE COUNTY

The Greene County Farm Bureau has recently secured a new test for soil acidity in the county, known as the thiocyanate test, according to County Agent Prince.

The test was developed on the Rothamsted experiment station and introduced in this county in 1922, showing the early date which Greene County was able to secure the test.

The test, according to Mr. Prince is the easiest and most accurate test of acids and is made by shaking up a small quantity of soil with the material in a bottle, if the liquid is pink when cleared the soil is acid and needs lime.

The test, according to Mr. Prince, is also much more accurate than the litmus paper test, which was in vogue a few years ago and is also much more easily done than the Truog test, which local farmers have been using for the past few years, as one man can make twenty tests with this while only one with the Truog.

The new test, will be used from now on in the Greene County Farm Bureau work, says Mr. Prince, or until a better and simpler test is devised. The Farm Bureau is planning this winter to encourage the farmers to test their soils so as to find out whether or not they need lime.

ENLARGE POULTRY RECORD KEEPING

The poultry record keeping work that has been carried on by the Greene County Farm Bureau for the past two years is being enlarged and increased, according to County Agent Ford S. Prince.

During 1922, the Farm Bureau has had four farmers keeping complete accounts of their poultry flocks in the country. They are, Mrs. Elmer Hetsel, Xenia Township, Mrs. T. H. Middleton, Caesar Creek Township, Stephen B. Stedman, Beaver Creek Township, and Howard Woods, Sugar Creek Township.

The aim of the Farm Bureau this year is to secure one record keeper in each township, according to Mr. Prince. "The poultry extension work in Greene County for 1923 will center around these poultry demonstration farmers, and any poultry feeding or culling demonstrations will be held at the farms of these record keepers," said Mr. Prince. "Therefore I am anxious to have at least one in each township and the poultry committeemen of the Bureau are busy securing them."

TELLS HOW TO PREVENT COLDS AND TREATMENT

With the cold weather approaching, the most common complaint is usually a "common cold." The symptoms are well known. The causes are many, and are not entirely understood. Colds are dependent, however, upon the growth and activity of living germs received from other people.

Colds are infectious.—Drafts, getting wet, chilling do not produce colds but lower the resistance of the body to get the germs which other wise would not have had the chance to develop. The best way to fight a cold is to prevent it. To do this we must: first avoid contact with people having colds; second, keep body resistance and body machinery in perfect order. Wholesome food; regularity of meals; plenty of sleep and rest; abundance of fresh air day and night; proper elimination of waste through kidneys, bowels and skin; proper clothing to weather all—this will help to keep our body resistance at a high point. This is merely the observance of simple rules of hygiene.

The germs of cold leave the body in the secretions of the mouth and nose. They enter the body through the same route. Persons who fail to cover their mouths when coughing and sneezing are breeders of this disease, because in the fine spray of cough or sneeze germs are sent out broadcast to a distance of several feet and can be easily taken into the nose and mouth of others in the breathing process. Common drinking cups, fingers, food, or anything contaminated with the germs might also carry this disease.

To treat a cold, the best thing one can do is to see that the bowels move freely, stay in bed a day or two with the windows wide open, restrict diet to light food, and drink all the water one can. Of course if there is sore throat or more symptoms one should consult a physician. Avoid drugs unless prescribed by the doctor and do all you can to protect others from getting this cold from you. Careless spiters and sneezers should be ostracized by everybody because they are disease spreaders even if they do not seem to suffer with some particular disease.

GREENE COUNTY HAS 116 FARM BUREAU LEADERS SERVING ON COMMITTEES NOW

Greene County has 116 farm bureau leaders, men and women, voluntarily serving on community committees with a definite community job or "project" is the information received by Countys Agent Ford S. Prince, as the result of a compilation at the office of the agricultural leader, Auglaize and Belmont Counties lead with 402 local leaders apiece.

Ohio as a whole has 9,847 farm bureau local leaders in the thousand

POLAND CHINA HOG BRINGS GOOD SUM

Of interest to farmers over the county are two pure bred Poland China sales, that were held by two Greene County farmers, Friday.

The first sale was held Friday afternoon at the J. H. Mackey farm north of Jamestown, when sixty head of hogs were sold at an average price of approximately $50 a piece.

The highest priced boar offered at the sale, was purchased by Kersch and pistick of Jamestown, at $380. The highest sow sold at $115 to Governor Warren T. McCray, of Indiana. Governor McCray bought three head of hogs at the sale.

A sale was held Friday night at N. A. Kersch and Son farm head being sold at an average of $43. The highest animal was sold at $95, a pure bred sow.

LITTER OF HOOSIER TON CLUB WEIGHS HIGH

The heaviest litter of the Hoosier Ton Litter Club yet weighed tipped the scales officially, October 9, at 3,040 pounds. The litter was bred and fed by Schwartz Brothers of Berne, Ind., and according to the rules of the Ton Litter Club, it was weighed the day the pigs were six months old. A few litters are yet to be weighed but there are none that seem to appear to threaten the mark set by this litter.

The litter consisted of eleven pure bred Poland China pigs from registered hogs on both sides, thus proving the excellence of pure bred stock over scrabs, nondescripts or cross-breeds. Over 500 litters of all swine breeds and many kinds of cross-bred litters from all sections of Indiana were fed in the contest but this litter exceeded the next heaviest by over 400 pounds.

COUNTY FARMERS ATTEND WALLACE DAY CELEBRATION

Several hundred Greene County Farmers and their wives have signified their intention of attending "Wallace Day" at Fayette County, October 18. At a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Greene County Farm Bureau, last Saturday, W. B. Bryson was authorized to cooperate with the Fayette County Farm Bureau in making the day's program a success.

Greene County Farm Bureau officials are anxious to have the entries from this county in the various contests reported to the Farm Bureau office.

County Agent Ford S. Prince is calling for volunteers to enter the tug-of-war, five husky Greene County farmers being asked to volunteer for this contest. A cash prize of $25 will be given to the winning team of the contest. It is understood.

Other events on "Wallace Day" will include the big horseshoe pitching contest, and trap shooting contest prizes for all events to be given. Each county is to be represented by one team.

IMPROVEMENT SHOWN IN OHIO POTATO CROP

The October potato forecast for Ohio is about a half million bushels above the September estimate and is placed at 10,050,000 bushels by Statistician C. J. West of the State-Federal Crop Reporting Service.

This is a potato crop for Ohio fifty per cent larger than last year's crop though not so large as 1920 crop. The United States crop will be about twenty five per cent above last year's crop and is estimated at 43,000,000 bushels.

The larger crop of this year is reflected in the comparative prices for potatoes of $1.26 per bushel to farmers on September 15th of this year and $2.05 for the state average at the same time last year. Potato prices in the past have been very greatly influenced by the size of the crop. A crop of more than 375,000,000 to 400,000,000 bushels has meant prices to the farmer while a crop of much below 375,000,000 has usually been sold from the farm at better figures.

EXHAUSTIVE STATISTICAL ANALYSIS OF OHIO AGRICULTURE TO BE MADE AT MEETING OF STATE FARM INTEREST

County Agent Ford S. Prince will be among the other agents, home demonstration officials, county club leaders and extension workers from over the state who will convene at Columbus, Oct. 18, 19 and 20.

The most thorough statistical analysis of Ohio agriculture, by counties, ever made, will be presented the leaders and agents at the meeting, by rural economists of the Ohio State University.

Since July 1, two members of the rural economics department have been transcribing from census, assessors' and field survey reports, all facts that show the agricultural trend in each county in the state. They have hammered these figures into line on adding machines, and now are copying off their averages and results on summary sheets. Each county will be given three sheets, eight and one half by eleven inches, and the addition of a state summary will make a final report of 269 such pages.

The work was done by R. F. Taber, extension specialists and E. J. Utz, advanced student in rural economics. The county reports will show the number of head of livestock as it has varied from 1860 to date; the varying acreage of all crops from 1880 to date; the comparative value of these crops; and the percentage of each crop that is sold from the farms. The work has been done in belief that only by having facts on the main farm interests in a county can a county program of extension be made to meet the greatest need of the locality. Similarly to guide the home demonstration end of the extension program, it is proposed to extend the survey to include school facilities, home conveniences and social organizations.

H. C. Wallace, secretary of agriculture, will address the evening session of the conference, October 18 coming to Columbus from Fayette County Farmer's Picnic.

SWEET POTATO AND TOMATO YIELDS BIG

Each of the leading truck crops show about a five per cent increase in acreage over last year in Ohio. Onion yields per acre are fair while the yields of tomatoes, cabbage and sweet potatoes are all high, according to Statistician C. J. West of the State-Federal Crop Reporting Service.

The acreage of cabbage in the state is 2,275 acres; tomatoes, 12,200 acres; onions, 5,875 acres and the sweet potato acreage is around 3,150 acres, according to the preliminary estimates.

The state average yield for cabbage is placed by correspondents at 5.7 tons per acre which is the smallest yield in the last five years. Tomatoes will yield from 5.5 to 6 tons per acre which is a good average yield.

The onion yield will apparently run around 200 bushels per acre on the average, which is slightly more than last year but only half the yield of the 1920 crop.

The hot and dry weather of the late summer resulted in a heavy sweet potato crop of 105,500,000 bushels for the United States and 320,000 for Ohio. The Ohio yield of 111 bushels per acre, as estimated from correspondents' reports is the highest of the past five years.

ANTIOCH CLUB AT DAYTON OPENED FRIDAY EVENING

Forty freshmen of Antioch College Yellow Springs, were "at home" at their comfortable new club, on Sunset avenue, Dayton, Friday evening, to Dayton friends, who called to visit the club house which has been furnished through the kindly efforts of Dayton women.

The guests of the evening were welcomed by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Morgan, Mrs. S. S. King, chairman of the reception committee, Mrs. Elizabeth Haswell, chairman of the Antioch College club committee, and a number of women, who as chairmen of the various rooms, helped make the club possible. Among the guests were several members of the Antioch college faculty.

Flowers, lights and a grate fire added to the homelike appearance of the club rooms, for the occasion, each room bearing a card with the names of those who had provided the furnishings. On the first floor are a combined living and billiard room, reception room, library, dining room, butler's pantry, and kitchen. The dining room has a wide fire place and deep window nook filled with plants and an antique buffet, set in a shallow niche in the wall. The library is a cozy place, with a deep cushioned davenport, library table, and lamp, and diamond plan book cases, Marquisette and cretonne hangings are a final touch of beauty.

There are twelve bedrooms on the second and third floors, adequately and attractively furnished with four beds each, a writing desk, table, chairs and lamps. The boys from every corner of the globe, have set up a form of government for the club house, with a house committee, the rules by the latter prohibiting gambling, and undue noise, and require making of beds, waiting on table, and general cleanliness. The students escorted the visitors through the houses and assisted in serving refreshments.

MAXIMUM MARGIN ON COAL IS FIXED

The retail maximum gross margin curb or cellar delivery on coal sales in Greene County, allowed in addition to the price f. o. b. car at mine and freight rate is two dollars, according to figures announced Saturday by Governor Davis, to become effective next Friday, October 20. The figures announced for the various counties, vary in various municipalities and rural districts, the lowest allowance in the schedule, 65 cents per ton, applying to all of Gallia County, where dealers costs are least, it is claimed. The highest margin is $2.75 at Cleveland, where the greatest expense in labor and real estate cost for yard and kindred purposes, is said to exist. The schedule provides for a total of 106 separate margins, averaging $1.86 per ton.

It was explained that the varying gross margins are due to a wide variance of retail distribution conditions in different sections of Ohio.

GREECE FINALLY SIGNS ARMISTICE

London, Oct. 14.—Greece has finally signed the Near East armistice the foreign office announced today. Greece however, has made formal demands for protection for the Christian population of Thrace against the Turks.

Constantinople, Oct. 14.—Official evacuation of Greeks from eastern Thrace will begin at midnight but thousands have already left since the signing of the armistice at Mudania. There are about 400,000 Greeks to be evacuated into Greek territory which is already filled to overflowing with penniless starving fugitives.

Many trains have been commandeered to carry Greeks from eastern Thrace and from this city. Despite their threats to remain and fight the Turks the Greek army of occupation in eastern Thrace is already moving westward. At some places Greeks have been terrorized by Turkish irregulars and are fleeing in panic.

CRICKET IS GOOD GAME FOR GIRLS

London, Oct. 10.—Lawn tennis, cricket and lacrosse are the most suitable games for girls, according to a decision reached by the College of Precursors in England.

They came to this opinion after studying the results of a searching questionnaire submitted to a great number of doctors, women medical students and head mistresses.

Schoolmistresses agreed that the effects of games and physical exercises on the disposition and character of girls are beneficial. But a small number thought that there was a tendency in England to magnify the relative importance of games to the detriment of character.

Sixty-six per cent of the mistresses thought that gymnastics, with special apparatus, were suitable for girls, but half of these insisted on the most careful supervision if apparatus were used.

TENNIS, NETBALL APPROVED.
Lawn tennis and netball met with unanimous approval from the teachers. Hockey, although approved by the great majority of mistresses and students, was regarded by some as suitable only for the older and stronger girls, and by some as altogether too rough and strenuous for girls.

Cricket was very generally approved, but here again a small proportion thought that game was of doubtful utility for girls.

Football was condemned almost unanimously. Only two teachers out of fifty-two thought girls should play it, and doctors emphatically condemned it as unsuitable. The consensus of opinion was that it put an enormous strain on the growing girl.

With regard to other sports, swimming was generally approved. It was recognized, however, that this is an exercise entailing some strain on the heart, and medical advice should be taken before a girl indulges too much in this form of recreation.

ROWING IS CONDEMNED.
Racing in rowing was condemned by twenty-seven out of thirty-four women doctors.

Cycling, providing that it is carried out in moderation and that the cycle is adjusted to the individual, met with a large measure of approval, but by some it was thought to cause round shoulders, and some teachers pointed out that when girls cycle long distances to school the strain tends to unfit them for mental work.

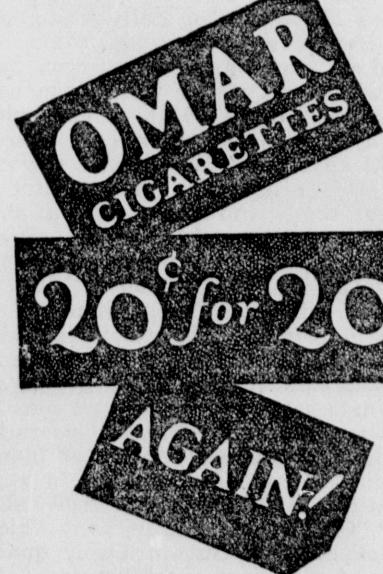

The medical members of the Council of the College, after considering the reports of the doctors, drew up this report.

"Among the games we have had under consideration, namely, tennis, netball, lacrosse, golf, hockey, cricket and football only the last is considered unsuitable for girls. Of sports swimming, rowing, cycling, horse riding are all good for girls, provided they are carried out under suitably conditions and excess is avoided."

The question of what effect girls games have on motherhood is not definitely answered by the doctors. "On the whole," they declare, "it would seem that there is no clear proof that strenuous physical education has any special influence either upon the prospect of motherhood or of labor."

SCHOOLS ASKED TO OBSERVE DAY

Columbus, Oct. 14.—Urging that public meetings be arranged for wherever possible especially in the schools, Gov. Davis today issued a proclamation requesting October 27, birthday of the late Theodore Roosevelt be observed in perpetuation of his memory and in evidencing "our gratitude for the heritage of lofty, ardent citizenship which he has bequeathed to his own and succeeding generations through the example of his life."

For the woman who adores the romantic grace of a cape, Dame Fashion has designed many alluring creations this season. From a marvelous orange and silver affair which I saw at Polret's to the conservative but wholly luxurious black velvet model pictured today, the cape in many different developments takes its place as the smart wrap for evening wear.

A simple, gathered effect is the foundation of the cape illustrated, but the feature that distinguishes this model from the usual straight gathered at the neck affair is the long panel which is gathered in the neck behind and extends from shoulder to shoulder. This panel is cut diagonally at the base and its straightness is extremely chic when the cape itself is gathered close about the figure. The collar is gray squirrel.

AGED PRISONERS ARE YARDONED

Manila, Oct. 14.—Governor-General Leonard Wood pardoned 200 aged prisoners from Bilibid recently, and many of them, after wandering about town all day, showed up at the police station for something to eat and a place to sleep. There, next morning, they identified belongings taken from them at the time of their arrest, more years ago than Rip Van Winkle slept. Then they found their way back to old homes in the provinces, where they will seek asylum with relatives for the short time they live.

Governor Wood, in pardoning them, said they were too old to do anyone any harm, and it was cruel to keep them in prison longer. He is clearing out Bilibid, benefiting the men by doing so and saving the Government much expense. Younger men serving long sentences are sent to prison colonies and farms. Chinese eccidivists, chiefly offenders against the opium law, are being deported as undesirable enemy aliens. Other prisoners, having served from a fifth to a fourth of their sentences, are being paroled on pledges to be law-abiding in future.

GOVERNMENT ON A PAYING BASIS.

The substantial benefits derived from the conference for the limitation of armament can now begin to be discerned in the financial report of the government which shows that the United States is at last upon a paying basis, with income exceeding expenses by three hundred million dollars in a single year. The public debt also was reduced last year by more than a billion dollars.

First of all, attention is directed to the reduction of armament. The purpose of the conference which was held last year at Washington was avowedly to relieve humanity of the crushing burden of taxes to maintain armed forces to annihilate one another. If there is skepticism about the effectiveness of the idea, read the financial record of the United States for the year just ended, in which expenditures for the army were reduced ninety four million dollars and expenditures for the navy were reduced a hundred eighteen million dollars. The total of more than two hundred million dollars is direct saving for the people of the United States. From the people comes the money to keep up the armed establishment of the government; on the people rests the burden of war when war comes; to the people comes sure ease from the crushing burden by reason of the movement which originated in Washington to put an end to war, a movement that was carried forward to brilliant success.

WASHINGTON PLUMB SORRY ABOUT "UNCLE JOE'S" LEAVING.

Washington is not "just a bit sorry," as "Uncle Joe" Cannon put it, that the former "Czar" of the House is to retire from public life at the end of his present term. Washington is "plumb" sorry. For a century and a quarter Washington has watched the endless procession of the great and the near-great passing in and out of Congress and has grown a bit blasé. But with all her indifference she is faithful to a few. One of those is "Uncle Joe." He has not only broken the all-American record for length of service in Congress, but all records for personal popularity at the capital. Even during his reign as Speaker, when cartoonists painted him as a ruthless tyrant, editors flayed him and paragraphers lampooned him, Washington remained steadfast in her affection to "Uncle Joe."

Washington assayed him and found him pure gold. He has not tarnished in half a century. He is by long odds the most picturesque character in Congress, and Washington wanted him to stay there. When he walks out of the House into private life next March, Washington will be the real loser, for "Uncle Joe" is going back to Danville pledged to live until he rounds out the century.

AN ANTI-BONUS LEAGUE.

An Ex-Servicemen's Anti-Bonus League has been formed in New York. Its activities and membership will be extended throughout the country.

This may seem like an undertaking started too late, but it is not. Proponents of the bonus do not intend to let the matter rest with the recent veto put upon it. It will be brought up in some form soon after congress reconvenes. It is in anticipation of this that service men opposed to the federal bonus have combined for action.

The ground upon which the organization will base its arguments are not new but they will come with new authority from this source. One proposition deserves thoughtful consideration especially. It is that the men who came back from the war without being wounded, gassed or shell-shocked—and 90 per cent of them did—actually returned with their power appreciably increased by the training which they received in service, and that the net earnings of many of them while with the army were greater than they ever had been before.

This is sturdy stuff, and the new organization will meet with opposition both from bonus enthusiasts within service ranks and from politicians without. The movement against it among the men themselves should help to make the matter clear.

A JANUARY CROP.

The 1918 series of war savings stamps is due for redemption in January. Some idea of the great sum of money invested in this issue can be had from the statement that in a single county in one state over $8,000,000 of these securities still remain in private hands.

The dealers in fake stocks, wild promotion schemes and fraudulent stuff of all sorts are whetting their sythes and getting ready to reap a goodly share of the money put back into circulation when the stamps are redeemed. They will be all ready to prey upon the unwary and credulous, as always. Fortunately reputable financial concerns, banks, bonding and building and loan companies also are on the watch, and have started an active propaganda for sound investment.

It is well for the possessor of these government pledges, whether in large or small sums, to take the words of the old hymn for a guide: "My Soul, Be On Thy Guard." There is time between now and January for any holder to make a study of the field and to determine by investigation where he safely may invest the sums he realizes by cashing in his stamps.

In New York a savings bank account becomes dormant after 20 years, and a trust or State bank account after five years. It then ceases to draw interest, but is carried on the books as a permanent liability.

President Harding recently asked Congress for a special appropriation of $42,430,000, for refunding taxes collected during the fiscal year ending June 30. The bulk of this refund is for income taxes erroneously paid.

Twenty-two per cent of the aluminum supply, 20 per cent of the plate-glass output, 20 per cent of the tin, 16 per cent of the copper and 4 per cent of the annual production of iron and steel are now used in making passenger automobiles and trucks.

Dr. Andrew Jackson Huntoon, in his 91st year, is still an employe of Uncle Sam. He examines the literary features of examination papers at the Civil Service Commission, Washington. He is a civil war veteran and his intellect is as keen as that of a man half his age.

YEAST

The excitement about yeast as a cure all for digestion and complexion troubles has rather died down this last year. The latest fad is to take quantities of iron into the system in the pleasant and easily digested form of raisins. But I may be out of date about that for I confess I do not follow these fads too seriously. Something else may have succeeded the craze for daily vitamins and iron. Frankly, I wish that instead of the slogans "Have you had your iron today?" or "Have you had your yeast cakes?" which once met my eyes at every turning someone would advertise "Have you had your six glasses of water today?" But I cannot think who might do that unless possibly it would be the water companies who certainly wouldn't profit much from such advertising.

Most fads have their virtues at least in theory. The yeast fad was one of the most sensible. Most of our best doctors recommended it. For obstinate cases of pimples and constipation yeast is excellent. Generally speaking, I know of no better blood purifier. Yeast also supplies in rich quantities that important food element. Called vitamins without which one cannot live. But such tiny quantities of vitamins are necessary that I would recommend yeast solely for this reason. In my mind its use is as a laxative and blood purifier. I would suggest three yeast cakes a day for those who wish to clear the face of pimples. These should be taken before or after meals, one cake dissolved in a little water or fruit juice. If they are too laxative, two a day may be quite enough; you can only find out by experimenting. Yeast melted to a paste applied to the skin helps to remove pimples and blackheads.

N.—The best way to tint the stray grey hairs is to use henna. This can be done so the natural color of the hair will not be affected. I will be glad to mail you directions for doing this if you wish it and send a stamped addressed envelope.

Mary—The hair in the brows, or anywhere else on the face, will return after it has been pulled out, as the root from which it grows is not affected in this way.

Agnes—If your health is good, your hair will improve if you massage the scalp every day, even though you do not have a tonic for it. The tonic would hasten the improvement.

Mildred—A cure for biting nails is to put something under them that is unpleasant to the taste. Bitter aloes is often used for this purpose, as it is harmless.

PAINS SO BAD WOULD GO TO BED

Two Women Tell How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Stopped Their Suffering

Iron Mountain, Mich.—"I had terrible pains every month and at times had to go to bed on account of them. I saw your advertisement and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound with very good results. I can work all day long now at my sick time. You may use these facts as a testimonial and I am recommending the Vegetable Compound to my friends."—Mrs. A. H. GARLAND, 218 E. Brown St., Iron Mountain, Michigan.

Xenia, Ohio.—"Every month I had such pains in my back and lower part of my abdomen that I could not lie quietly in bed. I suffered for about five years that way and I was not regular either. I read an advertisement of what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for other women, so I decided to try it. It surely has helped me a lot, as I have no pains now and am regular and feeling fine."—Mrs. MARY DALE, Route 7, Xenia, Ohio.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a medicine for women's ailments. It is especially adapted to relieve women. If you suffer as did Mrs. Garland or Mrs. Dale, you should give this well-known medicine a thorough trial.

The spuds are white and mealy, I like them smoking hot; but if I eat them freely my doctor cries, "Great Scott! You weigh too much already, yet such things you will chew! Your gain in weight is steady, in spite of all I do! Your face is hot and hectic, your pulse hits up a gait; a spasm apoplectic will get you soon or late." The roast is large and stately, the gravy rich and brown, and I am longing greatly to pour such victuals down. But says the learned physician, "Cut out such grub as that, or soon the pale mortician will bear you from your flat. I have to watch and guard you throughout the weary years, you blamed old bonehead bard, you, to save you from the bier." Such is the fate of fellows who do not toil or spin, who ply no blacksmith's bellows, or make cars out of tin; in gilded ease reclining, their lot seems far from hard; but when it comes to dinnings, all goodly things are barred. I watch the toiler plodding, as homeward he repairs, from ditching or from sodding, to eat five Belgian hares, I think his lot's a daisy, no doctors round him lurk; but I am too blamed lazy to go outdoors and work.

Today's Talk

by George Matthew Adams

PLANS

Half the fun of life lies in its planning.

When I talk to a boy who is all full of plans, I know that I am talking to a future man who won't be out of a job and who will be a success. And more than this, he will take scores of others along with him in this success.

It is good for a boy to say he will be this and that—even though his future plans lead him far from those ideas.

To wish to be happy gives one a taste of happiness right off!

The plan must be a mental picture of what we want or see already accomplished. And her thrilling it is to see the plan unfold into the real!

I have a friend who long ago told me of the coming visit of his mother.

And every day, it has seemed that boy has been planning something new to give an expression of the love he has for that old mother. She comes to him, you see, many weeks ahead—in his heart. And what a time of happiness they will have for all the planning.

Plans lead. They put renewed vigor into our efforts and keep telling us we can do anything that we think we can.

Today I walked through a city park and saw scores of men sitting on benches, some asleep and some "draped" across the benches, idle, greatly discouraged, no doubt—but without plans.

A little later in the day, I passed a great factor building with this sign in the window: "MEN WANTED."

Plan for today. Plan for tomorrow. Plan for the rest of your life. For there is nothing that can inspire you and give you confidence like feeling that you are going to get what you have planned to get.

Plan and prepare are very important words when their meanings are translated into action.

The most satisfying day is the one you plan out just the minute you rise from your sleep of the night, and then follow through as nearly as possible as you have planned.

DR. IDA WOOLSEY STRICKEN QUICKLY DIES OF APOPLEXY

Dr. Ida C. Woolsey, 69, well known homeopathic physician, died at her home, 210 West Main Street, a few minutes after five o'clock Friday evening.

Death was due to a stroke of apoplexy which she suffered Monday, when she was found lying on the floor unconscious, by Mrs. Addie Oglesbee, who has apartments at Dr. Woolsey's home. She regained consciousness later and anticipating death, gave instructions for her funeral preparations.

Dr. Woolsey was born at Evansville, Indiana, December 15, 1852, the daughter of William and Hannah Hall Woolsey. When she was young, her parents moved to Cincinnati, where she received her early education. She then attended Vassar, where she spent two years, giving up her studies because of ill health, and later attended the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor, where she graduated as a homeopathic physician in 1892, as well as from the regular college department. Four years she spent in specializing in diseases of women and children.

Following her graduation, Dr. Woolsey came to this city, where she had developed a practice and had since made her home. She was the youngest of nine children and the last survivor of her immediate family, there being no near surviving relatives. While she did not take an active part in club or social life, Dr. Woolsey was well known through her long association in Xenia and recognized as a brilliant member of her profession. She was formerly a member of the State Homeopathic Society, but had not continued her membership of later years.

Funeral services will be held at the home of Mrs. Addie Oglesbee at four o'clock Sunday afternoon, and the body will then be taken to Cincinnati Monday for burial.

Letters to The Editor

The following letter from Mrs. Myra K. Carpe, of this city, who is making an extended stay in Europe, will be of interest to her friends in this city.

"Dear Xenia Gazette: From the cool mountain heights of Switzerland, I send through your columns, my remembrances to my many friends in Green County.

"Here, the season has been late and snow lies quite low, yet, throughout these Alps, the Alpine flowers seem to especially thrive in this cool summer; their brilliance and variety are unusual and constitute one of Switzerland's unique charms.

"This, as will be remembered, is a triple-tongued land; I mean, in this little paradise, three languages are spoken, Italian, German and French, so here is a good place to practice linguistic ambitions.

"* * * Hoping that Xenia is having a pleasant summer,

Yours very sincerely, Myra K. Carpe."

XENIA HIGH LOSES TO SIDNEY FRIDAY; ONE TOUCHDOWN

Mighty Casey struck out again Friday at the Fairgrounds oblong, when Central High School's trick football playhouse came tumbling down about her ears, all her prettily kept records being demolished in the smash, due to none other set of house wreckers than the gridiron machine that represents Sidney High.

When the echoes of the sob's had died out among the stables at the Fairgrounds, it became sadly evident that the visiting aggregation of pigskin chasers had out-footballed Coach Earl Burgner's athletes to the tune of 7 to 0. If the bitter defeat acts like a dose of bitter medicine, it should have a greatly improving effect on the blue and white eleven when it meets Piqua next Friday.

The Burgner or proteges are shy a defence against an aerial attack and because of poor generalship in the pinches, threw away several chances. The defeat should also impress the fact that with all games played on Friday, the team gets plenty of rest over the week end and needs all four available nights for practice, instead of the two actual rehearsals that were gone through with in preparation for the Sidney game.

With the defeat went a hard-won championship of south-western Ohio, which the 1921 team won by not having a single defeat. With it also went the highly-prized Miami University cup, all of Xenia's hopes for a championship repeater, and the winning record of 11 straight games and of being scored on but once. It was the first time Xenia has lost in two years, the first time it has failed to score a touchdown, and the second time the blue and white team has been scored upon.

The visitors scored late in the third quarter, largely through Xenia's inability to toss forward passes, and to the opposite strain in the make up of Sidney. It was Stockstill, huge full back and biggest ground-gainer for the visitors, who intercepted a pass late in that period and ran it back ten yards to Xenia's 32-yard line. Smith threw Payne for a yard loss, but Stockstill made two and then Payne one. At this juncture Wheeler passed to M. Cowan, for a 26 yard gain that placed the oval on Xenia's six yard line. Payne picked up three yards through center and then Stockstill found a hole big enough to drive a truck through off right tackle, and he slid across the goal line. Seaving annexed the extra point through a drop kick.

Xenia was only actually aggressive in the first period, Randall intercepted a pass on Xenia's 43 yard line early in that session and the team picked up two first downs on straight line plunging. With the ball on Sidney's 20-yard line, the leather went to the visitors on downs. Xenia again took the ball on downs on the 30, and Randall made nine around right end and Hollencamp eight for another first down. Art Currie attempted one of his sloppy passes, and Miller intercepted the oval and dashed 60-yards to Xenia's 20 yard line before he was dragged down from the rear by Fuller. The play seemed to take the heart out of the blue and white attack.

As the second quarter started Smith threw Payne for a 11-yard loss and then Fuller intercepted a pass on Xenia's 15 and returned it seven yards to the 22, but Randall was forced to punt. In this period, Payne's 20-yard run around right end contributed much to dishearten the locals. Xenia took the ball on downs on its own 10 yard line, however, and Randall punted out or danger. Two passes late in the second quarter, Wheeler to Payne for 10-yards and Seaving to Wheeler for 15 gave the visitors a first down on Xenia's 20. Stopped for three downs. Seaving attempted a drop kick which fell short and rolled into the end zone.

Early in the third quarter, M. Cowan punted to Fuller on Xenia's 33-yard line, and a pass, Randall to Carl Cowan netted 25 yards for Xenia. Fuller picked up 13 off tackle, and would have made 20 more if he had not run offside. Xenia's attack wilted however when Seaving intercepted a pass, Payne made a first down for the visitors then with his 11-yard run around right end. Stockstill was forced to punt, however, but he later intercepted a forward pass with the disastrous results that ended in the score. Xenia resorted to the over-head game in an attempt to even the count in the fourth quarter, but the effort was uncertain. Sidney threatened seriously in this period. A 25-yard pass, Wheeler to M. Cowan put the oval on Xenia's ten once, and the plunges carried it to the three yard line, where Yeakley covered a Sidney fumble. After Randall had punted 45-yards from the end zone to Xenia's own 89-yard line, Seaving missed another attempted drop kick.

A pass, Art Currie to Randall for 14 yards put new life into Xenia after that attempt. Hollencamp got nine off tackle and Fuller made it first down near the 50. Another pass Art Currie to Hollencamp worked for six yards but the next attempt was intercepted by Aldrich on Sidney's own 40.

While a few passes were successfully completed by Xenia, the locals seemed more successful at plunging the line, Hollencamp, Fuller and Randall, getting their yards almost every attempt, but an inconsistent determination to use the aerial form of attack spelled the downfall of the locals. Xenia's backs are never overworked totting the leather, but they get plenty of opportunity to wear themselves out chasing wobbly passes that are seldom within reach and are poorly propelled.

Sidney made six first downs, three in each period and four of them were due to successful passes. Six passes worked successfully, one not making the yardage. Xenia, however, made seven first down, three in the first half and four in the second, and all but two of them were made on plunging, the other two being successful passes Xenia used 16 passes, two failing in the first half and three of them successful in the second period for a total of 45 yards.

Four of Xenia's passes were intercepted, Miller, Seaving, Stockstill, and Aldrich each getting one. Sidney used eight attempted passes completing two in the first half and three in the second for a total of 91 yards. Two of their passes failed in the first half, when they were intercepted by Randall and Fuller, and another was grounded in the second half.

Gloom pervaded choirs circle Friday night because of the defeat, and there was much comment of the fact that Bob Gegner, who showed starring qualities at half last week, had resented a remark made to him by Coach Burgner and had quit school as a result. The result of the game calls for hard work during the coming week in preparation for the contest with Piqua which is another exceptionally strong team. The defeat of Xenia was the first of the season for Sidney, that team having been walloped by Lima Central and Wapakoneta. The summary:

CEDARVILLE COLLEGE NEWS

The newly organized college orchestra met for its first practice Tuesday evening at the home of Forrest Nagley. The following officers were elected: Lucile Johnson, manager, director and pianist; Forrest Nagley, secretary and treasurer; and Donald Wickersham, sergeant at arms.

The Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. met each Wednesday morning during chapel hour. Last Wednesday, Mr. Fred Willis led the Y. M. C. A. His topic was, "What the Y. M. C. A. Means." Miss Marie Meahl, the Y. W. leader, took the "Lily" as her subject.

Friday afternoon Cedarville football team played Antioch at Yellow Springs. The Cedarville team lost by the score of 18 to 0 after a very hard struggle. Both teams played loosely. The Cedarville student body was well represented and both schools had plenty of spirit.

The seniors had a feed Friday night in a woods not far from Cedarville. Judging by the menu, they must surely have had a very good time.

John Davis is back in school after a severe illness. John was welcomed back by all, and it is hoped he will have no further trouble.

The Cedarville football team is hard at practice for their game with Rio Grande College, next Saturday afternoon at two thirty. The varsity men who were very much crippled up, and out of condition for the An-

THE ROAD THAT LED TO HAPPINESS CHAPTER 96

The little apartment was indeed attractive as Nellie and Donald stood before the clergyman who was to marry them. Mrs. Roberts had sent several plants that formed a background for bride and groom. The curtains were drawn and lights, softly shaded, illumined the happy faces.

Muffled sounds came from the little kitchen where the supper was being prepared and Nellie in her dainty bedroom was changing into her wedding dress.

"Oh, now can I ever thank you!" she said to Mrs. Roberts, who with Cora, was helping her. "I feel so much more than I am really being married to have this dress and veil. Just what I used to dream I would have when I was so ignorant and poor that I wonder I ever dreamed at all. Who would have thought I ever would have a home like this? Do you remember poor little me when I first came to you, Cora? I guess I was about the most forlorn piece of humanity that ever struck New York. Me, and my stolen suit-case."

"You were rather forlorn, Nellie, but even then you were full of grit. I always felt you would come out all right. The only thing, I worried about your looks. You were too pretty for a working girl. I'm glad you have Donald to look after you. I think he will be equal to it."

She spoke laughingly, yet even now Cora scarcely understood how Nellie could have broken out her marriage with Mr. Fallon. She asked Donald, was glad Nellie was so happy, but as she thought of the weedy, aristocratic man, a man who was a good man as well, she could scarcely understand what had decided Nellie, even though she had explained it to her many times. Nellie had seemed to be in love with him, very much in love, he with her. Yet there was now a lightness of spirit, a buoyancy in Nellie she never had shown before, a faith in her future that asked no questions. So Cora, loving her dearly, rejoiced though she wondered.

"You are perfect!" Cora said, while Mrs. Roberts smiled and kissing Nellie added: "You look very sweet dear."

"May I come in?" Donald called. "Time's mos' up, Nellie." His eager voice trembled a little.

"Yes, come in, Donald," Cora said.

There never was a lovelier bride, so both Mrs. Roberts and Cora thought when, all dressed, Nellie waited for their comments.

"You are perfect!" Cora said, while Mrs. Roberts smiled and kissing Nellie added: "You look very sweet dear."

"May I come in?" Donald called. "Time's mos' up, Nellie." His eager voice trembled a little.

"Yes, come in, Donald," Cora said.

"Tell us what you think of your bride."

"I think she is the sweetest girl in the world, and the most beautiful," he replied, as regardless of the other, unbent and told one or two amusing stories of couples he had married. Supper ended. Donald and Nellie were left alone, the good wishes of their guests in their ears.

"There, there, Donald!" Nellie cried. "You mustn't muss me all up! How do you like my dress?"

"Like it! Why you look just like a beautiful white rose. I am almost afraid you'll fade before my eyes. You are really wonderful, Nellie," he said more soberly, "I don't believe a bride ever looked as lovely."

"Then thank Mrs. Roberts. It's all her doings!" Nellie gayly responded. The minister now arrived, and a moment afterward the three or four others who were to make up the wedding. And because now it brought her own loss poignantly before her.

Then the party sat down to supper, the table beautifully laid with the linen Cora had given them, dazling with George Fallon's gift of silver. And the bride's cake had not been forgotten. Nellie cut the first slice with much laughter at her awkwardness, which she explained was because "most of her life she hadn't had any cake to eat, let alone cut."

Even the clergyman delighted with the informality of the wedding supper, unbent and told one or two amusing stories of couples he had married. Supper ended. Donald and Nellie were left alone, the good wishes of their guests in their ears.

Donald took her into his arms, and whispered:

"May you always be happy, Nellie. God helping me you never shall have anything to regret."

So we leave the little "slavey" from Hunter's Corners, who in spite of all her handicaps, all her temptations, kept faith with herself and it led to happiness.

THE END.

Jane Phelps excels as an alaysist of married life problems a narrator of "married life stories." Beginning Monday in the Gazette and Tuesday in the Republican she will tell the story of a woman who loved and married an artist, and of their life together. In these "CHAPTERS FROM A WOMAN'S LIFE" Jane Phelps gives us one of the most engrossing serials she has ever written. Look for the first chapter in this column—The Editor.
